AUTO WRECKED TWO INJURED

Ernest Pelletier, the Jockey, Had Narrow Escape From Death—Girl Injured

Ernest Pelletier, the well-known jockey, is in a critical condition, at his home, 69 High street, suffering from two fractured ribs and other internal injuries as well as external bruises, which were received in an automobile accident which occurred yesterday afternoon on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard near Stanley's dance hall in Methuen. There were two others in the automobile, but fortunately they were not seriously injured. The car, an Overland five-passenger auto, was practically demolished.

The automobile is owned by Delphis Belleville, who resides at 222 Cumberland road and conducts a grocery and meat market at 22 Aiken avenue. Yesterday Mr. Belleville, his daughter, Ida, about 14 years of age, and Mr. Pelletier journeyed to Haverhill. They left the shop city at about 3 o'clock and shortly after 4 o'clock they reached Stanley's place in Methuen. Mr. Belleville was at the wheel and he was driving at a moderate rate of speed. At this point the road was covered with a thin coating of ice, but Mr. Belleville paid very little attention to this for the rear wheels of his car were equipped with chains.

However, the machine skidded and struck the Bay State tracks. The chauffeur applied the brakes, but his efforts were fruitless, the machine skidded along and finally struck a telegraph pole and turned turtle. Mr. Belleville managed to get away under the car and with the assistance of neighbors he succeeded in removing his daughter and Mr. Pelletier, who were pinned to the ground under the car.

Mr. Pelletier and the girl were conscious, and it was readily seen that they had suffered serious injuries. They were placed aboard the first electric car that came along in the Lowell direction and hurried to his home in High street and Dr. L. D. V. Rochette was summoned in haste. After a close examination he found that his patient was suffering from two fractured ribs as well as other internal injuries and bruises about the body. To the writer the doctor stated this morning Mr. Pelletier's condition is very serious and he entertains little hope for his recovery.

Ida Belleville was badly injured about the legs and body, while her father received bruises about the legs. Fortunately their injuries are not of a serious nature.

The front wheels of the auto were smashed as well as the wind shield and mud guards, while the body of the car was also badly damaged. The auto was last night towed to a local garage.

MILE A MINUTE GALE SWEEPS NEW ENGLAND

24 Below at Northfield, Vt. — Entire Country in Grip of Freezing Weather — Great Suffering — The South Fears Cold Wave — Crops Damaged

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—The breath from the Arctic which followed the St. Lawrence storm of yesterday brought the lowest temperature in three years to New England today, although the extremes were not record breaking. Northfield, Vt., with a reading of 24 below zero headed the minus list, with 22 below at Burlington, 14 below at Concord, N. H., six below at Boston and Eastport.

The cold wave was harder to withstand than usual owing to the north-east gale which blew a mile a minute on Cape Cod and nearly 40 miles an hour in other parts of New England. The maximum wind velocity was 72 miles an hour on Cape Cod while during some of the squalls last night 45 and 50 miles were recorded in other parts of New England.

The cold wave was welcomed by the tea dealers of southern New England, who had feared another failure of their crop.

NINE BELOW AT PORTLAND
Second Real Cold Snap of the Winter—20 Below in Other Sections of the State of Maine

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 13.—The second real cold snap of the winter carried the mercury in the weather bureau this morning in this city down to nine degrees below zero. Temperatures varying from ten to twenty or more below were reported from various sections of the city and suburbs.

FREEZING WEATHER
Entire Central and Eastern Sections in Grip of Cold Wave—25 Below at Tupper Lake

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The entire central and eastern section of the country are today in the grip of hard freezing weather with prospects that it will continue another 24 hours at least and in some sections for a longer period. From the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic coast reported drops in temperature were recorded last night and early today. Even in the south reports indicate a general cold wave and it is feared that in many places the orange crop will be damaged.

In New York the temperature dropped to ten above zero early this morning and weather forecasters predicted still colder weather during the day. In the northwest below zero temperatures were common, the lowest, 20 degrees below, being registered at Devil's Lake, N. D., at White River, Ontario, 30 degrees below was reported.

Other low temperatures today were: Fourteen degrees above at Cleveland, Ohio; ten degrees below at Quebec; Zero at Chicago.

Six degrees below at Boston.

Frozen to Death

While but one death was recorded in New York last night much suffering from the extreme cold. Nearly 3500 men and women sought shelter last night at municipal lodging-houses and charity organizations.

The coldest night of the winter in the Adirondacks was reported, the thermometer registering 20 below at Utica and 25 below at Tupper Lake. Hundreds of unemployed in Montreal have been given work removing the snow of the recent blizzard. Along the Atlantic coast shipping suffered from the off-shore gale and in New York harbor early today the number of vessels engaged in towing and transferring freight was far below normal. The drop in temperature of 19 degrees since noon yesterday brought the first genuine winter weather to New York and vicinity and the northwest gale of yesterday, continued today, although with less velocity.

MANY SMALL FIRES

Result From Overheated Furnaces and Attempts to Thaw Pipes in Houses—6 Below

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—Unofficial thermometers in the city and suburbs this morning registered from six to two degrees below zero, with a sweeping northwesterly adding to the discomfort. Overheated furnaces and attempts to thaw frozen water-pipes resulted in many small fires which kept the apparatus on the jump early in the day.

MONTREAL, 7 BELOW

Real Taste of Winter, but It Helped the Unemployed, Given Work Removing Snow

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—Seven inches of snow fell between midnight and noon yesterday and a decline of the thermometer to 7 degrees below zero have given this city its first real taste of winter weather this season.

With about 15 inches of snow on the ground, Montreal now presents an appearance like that of a few years ago, when the capital gained renown as the "Ice Carnival City." The storm came as a boon to the unemployed, however, as hundreds of them have been given work removing the snow.

COTTAGE BURNED DOWN

Firemen Found Place Inaccessible Except by Foot Bridge—Three Other Alarms

The fire department was kept busy this morning with three alarms, two of which rang in close to each other. Only one of these, box 612, was of any importance.

Box 612 was a fire in a cottage across from Beaver Brook opposite Beaver street. The firemen arrived there shortly after the alarm was sent in but a great deal of delay in throwing a stream on the blaze was occasioned by the fact that only a narrow footbridge led to the house. Over fifteen hundred feet of hose had to be dragged across this foot bridge by the firemen and then coupled onto an engine at the other end.

Before the firemen arrived on the scene the house was pretty well gutted. The furniture had all been removed and the family and neighbors were vainly endeavoring to extinguish the flames with buckets filled at the brook.

The dwelling was owned by J. He-nault. The building is a total loss.

Fire in Market Street

A fire in a restaurant in the Greek district in Market street, caused by a carelessly thrown lighted cigar, was responsible for an alarm from box 125 at 3:05 o'clock this morning. The fire apparatus arrived on the scene in quick time and the damage was slight.

There was a small fire in a cottage on Barclay street last night, the origin of which could not be learned, and a portion of the apparatus from the Branch street house was sent there, but upon arrival they learned that the blaze had been practically extinguished and but little damage had been done.

Fire on Westford Street

A fire in the dwelling house of Frank P. Moody at 375 Westford street gave the firemen a hard battle for about an hour this forenoon. The fire started at about 10 o'clock and at the time of going to press had not been put out. The damage was confined to the inside and it is understood that the loss will be heavy.

PRESIDENT BACK FROM VACATION

Returned to Washington Today After Three Weeks Stay at Pass Christian, Miss.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—President Wilson and his family arrived here at 7:30 this morning from his winter home at Pass Christian, Miss., and motored to the White House for breakfast. The party shivered with cold at the extreme change from the warm climate of the Gulf coast.

The trip was uneventful. The president greeted crowds at every station but made no speeches. To those who begged him to talk he would always say with a smile:

"I'm not in the habit of talking when I haven't anything to say."

The president's face was a picture of health as he got back to his desk. Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N. pronounced him much better physically than he had been for many months and in excellent condition for the strenuous work ahead. There was little doubt among the members of the president's party that the chief executive party would go to some point on the Gulf coast every winter hereafter. He is delighted with the opportunities for golf, the balmy air and even temperature and the seclusion which he enjoyed.

Except for the cabinet meeting few callers were expected at the White House today and official Washington will get its first glimpse of the president at the diplomatic reception tonight, the first of the mid-winter social functions.

claim he will win whether the vote is heavy or light.

The hotly contested election of Curley, the odds being 10 to 5. Some bets were reported of 2 to 1 on Curley.

Both mayoralty candidates closed the campaign this morning with parades and torchlight processions in their home districts. Curley in Roxbury and Kenny in South Boston.

The polls will be open from 5 a. m. to 4 p. m. Both the Kenny and Curley supporters have arranged to cover every precinct with workers and automobiles and nobody who desires to ride to the polls need walk if the precinct workers do their duty.

SCHOONER SANK

John Paul of Ellsworth, Me., Went Down in Nantucket Sound

VINEYARD HAVEN, Jan. 13.—The three-masted schooner John Paul of Ellsworth, Me., sank in Nantucket sound early today while in tow of the revenue cutter Acushnet. Word of the sinking came in the following wireless message from the Acushnet:

Schooner John Paul sunk four and a half miles southeast of Fort of Hedge Fence Lightship. Position only approximate owing to unfavorable conditions for taking soundings.

The message made no mention of the crew of the John Paul.

YOUNG MAN INJURED

Joseph Goldman, a young man employed at the shoe shop of Mears, Peckley and Adams at the corner of Lincoln and Tanner streets was seriously injured this forenoon about 11 o'clock, when he fell and struck his head against a machine. He sustained a scalp wound and was taken in the ambulance to the Lowell hospital.

NO PARDON FOR TOLMAN

No Reason Why Rich Should be Treated Any Differently Than Pauper, Says Gov. Glynn

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Governor Glynn yesterday refused finally to pardon D. H. Tolman, the convicted New York money lender.

District Attorney Whitman refused to say he favored an absolute pardon to Tolman, and this was the chief cause for the failure to obtain the prisoner's release. The governor requires the endorsement of the trial judge and the prosecutor in every case where he exercises clemency.

The governor said in a statement that the amount of indebtedness which would be cancelled by the notes Tolman promised to destroy if released and the number of people who would be benefited would be based on guesswork. Tolman's offer of a bond as a guarantee of his sincerity was worthless, added the governor.

"The acceptance of such a proposition would open the way for men of means to secure a pardon that is not open to reason why a millionaire criminal should be treated any differently than a pauper criminal. I don't feel justified in inaugurating a precedent of this kind."

OUR COLDEST DAY

Temperature of 16 Below This Morning in This City

With the mercury hovering way below the zero mark during the early hours this morning today was registered as the coldest day of the present year. The hard winds which blew furiously after sundown yesterday afternoon together with the exceedingly cold weather made this morning the most disagreeable day for several seasons past.

Yesterday the thermometer read about 15 degrees and as the evening drew near the temperature dropped until midnight when it was just one below in the downtown district. However, it continued to get colder this morning and at 6 o'clock at the pumping station on the boulevard when it was 12 below zero, the lowest the mercury has been this year. At the Lowell General hospital it was 11 degrees below and the Locks and Canals on Broadway the mercury stood about 8 below at 7 o'clock this morning. At 9 o'clock this morning Fages' thermometer in Merrimack Square showed a temperature of 8 below. In the outlying districts the temperature is reported to have been 16 and 18 degrees below.

Her Extra Frozen

A woman whose name could not be learned, but who resides in Tewksbury, was first bitten this morning while on her way to work and one of her ears was badly frozen.

As much as could be learned the woman in question in Lowell and was walking to her work this morning, when passing the residence of Dr. Pillsbury, she felt terrible pains and she entered the home of the physician.

When it was found that the woman's ear was frozen, the ambulance was summoned and the woman was removed to her home in Sprague street, Tewksbury.

SHOES AT $10 PER PAIR

WILL REACH THAT PRICE SOON, ACCORDING TO SPEAKER AT N. Y. CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—In the opinion of speakers at the annual convention of the National Shoe Retailers' Association, which closes at a banquet tonight, the retail price of shoes may soon reach $10 per pair. Pure shoe laws already adopted in 25 states and several measures of the same nature now pending in congress were given as the chief causes for increasing the price of footwear. Both speakers and a majority of the 200 delegates present denounced the legislation which would cause all the shoes not made entirely of leather to be stamped adulterated or substitute leather.

The shoe retailers were told that if all shoes were made of all leather 2,000,000 more hides per annum would be required in this country alone and with hides practically in control of the larger packing houses it cannot be foreseen to what heights shoe prices might soar.

WIND OVERTURNED TRUCK

FOUR FIREMEN PINNED UNDER HOOK AND LADDER—ONE SERIOUSLY INJURED

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 13.—A heavy three-horse hitch hook and ladder truck was overturned by a heavy gust of wind as it was responding to an alarm of fire early last evening and four firemen were pinned under it. One, ladderman Frank Quigley, was seriously injured while the others were bruised and shaken up. The fire was of little consequence being confined to a chimney. The truck was turning from Orms street into Black when the wind blowing about 60 miles an hour caught it broadside and overturned it.

BERNHARDT ON ROLL OF FAME
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—From Paris comes the news that at last the name of Sarah Bernhardt has been added to the roll of fame to the Legion of Honor. Her claims have been put forward several times before but the influence of a strong element in French society prevented the French actresses from obtaining the decoration.

Among the famous women who are possessors of the red ribbon are Adeline Patti, Mme. Corio, the Baroness De Rothschild, Mme. Paquin and Mme. Dutrieu, the aviator.

CLEAN PLAYS BEST
The main difference between sensational sociological plays and plays that are clean, said William A. Brady, is that clean plays, when they are successful, last longer than those of the other kind and make more money in the end. Almost everybody is deceived by the zip and hurrah with which a sensational play starts off. In fact, as we have seen, there seems to be a sort of thing, and while it lasts there appears to be no chance on earth for the drama of decency. But there always comes an end to the craze, when we all go back to plays which draw on their merits without appealing to morbid curiosity or evil appetite of any kind.

A sensational play, no matter how successful for the time being, never goes round more than once. It may turn away droves of applicants for seats and be the talk of the entire country but it cannot repeat. This goes for plays as well as serious drama. Give me "Seven Keys to Baldpate" and anybody may have all the "Girl in the Taxi" and the "Girl From Rector's" between here and Jericho, so far as I am concerned. When all these white slave plays and moving picture films have faded out, "Seven Keys to Baldpate" still being played, along with "Tog o' My Heart" and "The Little Minister," "The Old Homestead" and "In Old Kentucky," in none of which there is the slightest call upon any but the best sentiments of the public. Most of our dramas have been before the country for twenty years or so and nobody ever forgets them. On the other hand, how many of the names of salacious or crime plays produced in the same interval can you give off-hand?

Don't forget that The Sun issues a noon edition containing all the latest local and telegraphic news.

COMMON SENSE ABOUT COLDS

The Worst Thing You Can Do For a Cold Is to Pamper It.

No. 1.

We never learn how to treat a cold until we understand what it is.

In the first place it isn't really "a cold" at all.

It is the result, not of cold weather, but of wrongly used heat.

We live and work in over-heated homes—offices and factories—we travel in poorly ventilated street cars.

Our skins and membranes become distended and over-sensitive, and we become easy marks for the germs of influenza, grip, and pneumonia.

With the first little exposure to cold or damp weather we begin to cough and sneeze and shiver.

Then we say "we have caught cold"—as a matter of fact we have simply become infected by disease germs.

Then the usual thing for us to do is to pamper ourselves some more—over-heated room, hot tea and do a lot of other things, the only result of which is to still further weaken our systems and cause the germs to multiply at a frightful rate.

The wonder is that we ever survive at all.

What we really need when that first sneeze and shiver comes is—Plenty of fresh air and a gentle force to create a circulation of the blood—and a gentle laxative to carry off the germs after the pure air and pure blood destroy them. Fresh air and pure blood are the deadliest enemies of disease germs.

The Fresh air you can get anywhere.

The gentle and laxative you will find most marvelously combined in Hill's Cagora Bromide Quinine Tablets.

This is not a new remedy. For over fifteen years it has been sold by druggists all over the United States.

It has saved hundreds of thousands of people from disastrous effects of neglected colds.

It never fails to cure.

It is guaranteed and your money will be refunded if it does not cure.

It has no unpleasant after effects. It simply helps nature to rid your system of the deadly germs that have infected it.

Your druggist will tell you that it is a thoroughly reliable standard remedy.

Be sure to get the genuine—Hill's Cagora Bromide Quinine Tablets. The box with the red top and Mr. Hill's picture on it.

It is manufactured by W. H. Hill Company of Lowell, Mass., and is sold by druggists everywhere.

A first or second class engineer's license. A first class license is preferred. The examination will consist of an experience sheet, copying, handwriting and arithmetic.

The salary is $3.50 a day, and only citizens of the United States who have resided in Massachusetts for the past year and of Lowell for the six months last have a right to apply. Applications should be filed at once.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
Despite the cold weather of yesterday, the opera house was crowded to the doors, and well it might be for the feature evening is all that was claimed of it and then some. Dan-iel Frohman's "Part of the Door" with Miss Laura Sawyer in the leading role is one of the finest detective dramas that the Famous Players have ever produced.

The play follows the work very closely, and are laid in the locale of the story. It is beautifully enacted with Cecil Guyon and Charles Krauss, two well known actors in the leading roles. The remainder of the program includes comedies from the Vignettes, Eganway, and Pathe players, and the variety of the audience as it filed out of the lobby last night was "the best yet."

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"
Frank Mills, who has the leading role in William A. Brady's success "Bought and Paid For" which comes to the Lowell Opera House tomorrow night, is an enthusiastic indoor photographer, and has one of the finest amateur studios in New York. Here, surrounded by a vast array of photographic apparatus he passes his summer vacation working harder than he does on tour.

In the past three years Mr. Mills has gone in for color work and has made some wonderful specimens of still life in their natural colors. So far his experiments have been conducted inasmuch as he is only able to get color effects by the use of artificial light.

The light he uses is the same as is employed by moving picture photographers when making indoor negatives.

Just how this light is utilized, he is keeping it a secret, but as soon as his researches are completed he says he will announce it to the trade. His results are artistic but in its present condition the invention is commercially of little value as a still picture of a hand costs in the neighborhood of twenty-two dollars to finish.

The fact that he appears nightly at the theatre does not detract from his work as a photographer, for every day, armed with his camera, he is out taking pictures of every day life.

Owing to change in the time table of the N. Y. N. H. & Hartford R. R. it will be impossible for the company to arrive in Lowell in time to give a matinee performance.

KEITH'S THEATRE

The headline attraction at R. F. Keith's theatre this week is an act of nine persons in an offering entitled "School Boys and Girls," written by Gus Edwards and equally as pleasing as the other act of the same name which has appeared in this city in the past.

It has to do with "Graduating Day" in a country school and in the small company is represented everybody from the "tough guy" to the millionaire's son. Featured in this act is "Sassy Little" or Dolly Cliff, who possesses a sweet, winning, and winsome smile.

The others, including "Tazy, A Christian," are very good and the songs in the production are very catchy and are put over in a way that makes every one and all the singing superb.

The dialogue is well delivered with brilliancy and proves the ability of its author, Gus Edwards.

One of the features that stands out prominently in this act is the youth and life of the cast. They are all talented in their respective ways and ample opportunities are offered every one to display them. The songs include "Arithmetic" by the company; "Sine My Marguerite" by a Soprano; "What is the Matter with You?" by a Tenor; "Lost Your Day," Dolly "Sassy" Cliff; "When the Whole World Has Gone Back on You," Miss Aubrey; "Come on, Play Along with Me," Vera Lombry; "The Banker's Bride," Miss Aubrey; and several. All are well received and the act is sure to prove popular during the remainder of the week.

Among the better class of acts on the stage today and one of the best known is by Valentine Vox, a clever ventriloquist. This gentleman is accompanied by a likely looking figure dressed in a tuxedo and the scene is in the New York club. The act is entitled "The Clubman and the Hall Boy."

EUGENIC BABY

Doctor Claims Theory of Influencing the Sex is Confirmed

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—As proof of his statement that the sex of children is under human control, Dr. Arthur Silver Lane of 420 Boylston street yesterday pointed proudly to the girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Brien of Hulliston.

This little one, just a week old yesterday, has already been called the mascot of the Winter League, for her father is a prominent and popular member of that well-known organization.

The youngster was seen yesterday at a private hospital on Commonwealth avenue. The mite of a girl certainly looked healthy and posed without much weeping for a picture. Mrs. O'Brien also seemed in the best of health and Dr. Lane—well, Dr. Lane was simply jubilant, for he claimed that his oft repeated statement that the sex of a child can be determined before birth had been proven true.

"He and Mrs. O'Brien have long wished for a girl baby," said Dr. Lane to a reporter yesterday. "They had known for some time that I had claimed to be able to influence sex, by suggestions to the prospective parents and proper treatment."

"The little girl whom you see before you is proof that my claim is true, that the sex of a child depends entirely on the time of conception."

"This is the first eugenic baby of the year in Boston and I dare say that there are not many others in the entire country. It is a fact that in this 50 per cent. of the babies born in this world are living proof of the old, but true saying, 'accident of birth.' They may be born boys or girls, as circumstances dictate. But the sex can just as well be determined in advance if only the proper instructions are carried out by the prospective parents."

"It may seem very marvelous and all that sort of thing, while, as a matter of fact, it is really very simple if the proper instructions are followed," Dr. Lane derides the idea that feeding a prospective mother more or less sugar will have any effect on the sex of the child. He claims that there is no great mystery attached to the method of influencing sex, but that it simply means following out well defined laws of nature.

RESTOCKING RANGES WITH ELK

Butte, Montana hunters are watching with considerable interest the efforts of sportsmen throughout the state to restock the ranges with elk. Capt. C. Gay Silvers of Butte has been particularly active in this regard and has made application through the game warden's office for three cars of elk. That is about 120 head, to stock the ranges in the vicinity of Rock Creek, near Butte and near Georgetown. The work of distributing the elk at the latter place will probably develop upon General Manager E. P. Anderson of the Wallace smelter at Anaconda, who is himself an ardent sportsman. It is planned to place one carload, about forty-one head, near Butte, and two cars near Georgetown.

Later in all probability Capt. Silvers will make an effort to get some elk to stock the range in the vicinity of Moose Creek or north of Butte. Since the elk cannot be trapped until the snow gets deep, in all probability the move will be taken toward stocking the ranges until the months of January or February. The elk are protected until 1915 by law in all the counties to which it is proposed to ship them. Since the railroads are now carrying fish fry and eggs free, it is very probable that some similar concessions will be made with reference to the shipment of elk.

TO HONOR BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Few people would connect romance with the name of Benjamin Franklin, but there is chance that he may be commemorated in the most romantic of England's few, medieval churches, in these niches.

St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield, London.

Some one has discovered from the parish rate books that he once worked at the case in an office housed in his day in the Lady chapel of the church.

Franklin records in his autobiography that he worked in Bartholomew Close, but he says nothing about the place. He mentioned that he was employed on setting up the second edition of Woolaston's "Religion of Nature," and in that book is a quaint little engraving showing the top floor of the factory with the compositors' racks. The notes of these racks were still there in 1855 before the Lady chapel was cleared of its workaday fittings and prepared for worship again.

In the wall over the Lady Chapel altar (and in Franklin's day actually in the printing room) are five tall niches, probably first with figures of saints before the reformation. It is now proposed to commemorate Franklin by placing one or more "female saints" in these niches.

DEVICES TO AID HORSES

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—The Massachusetts society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has established stations about Boston at which teamsters may secure free of cost chain shoes and carpet slippers to aid fallen horses to regain their feet on icy pavements, and to take had grades while the ground is frozen.

No cost is made for the use of the patent devices.

ZERO WEATHER

Blizzard and Storm Lashed the New England Coast

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A bitter winter gale, accompanied by zero weather, lashed the New England coast yesterday. Scores of ships were imperiled and revenue cutters last night were driving through the storm to the rescue of two that are believed to be wrecks.

On one of these are caught a dozen United States life-savers sharing the peril of the vessel's crew whom they made a forlorn hope attempt to take off in the teeth of the storm.

Every wireless station on the coast last night was probing the dark in an effort to locate and bring aid to missing vessels.

On shore one person was probably fatally hurt by the storm several others were frozen and untold discomfort was caused by the sudden drop in temperature.

Boston harbor was the scene of the thrilling salvage of a dozen vessels that had broken loose in the wind, while Chatham and other ports along shore were crowded with shipping that had scurried to shelter.

Days may pass before the full tale of the storm's damage to shipping is told, as the fierce off-shore wind, rising to 70 miles an hour, drove many schooners far out to sea, and some of these have probably perished.

Late last night the revenue cutters Gresham and Acushnet were struggling to reach the four-masted schooner Mt. Hope, which was in dire distress off Chatham.

Their efforts are stimulated by the fact that she has on board Capt. Hezekiah P. Doane and the whole crew of the Old Harbor life saving station. Their plucky response to the distress signal of the American flag, down Union down at the mizen peak of the schooner, has resulted in their sharing the dangers of its crew.

After launching their big boat and after a desperate struggle with the sea are known to have reached the ship in safety; but the awful wind cut them off completely from any hope of return to shore. The sea was so bad that the Gresham, short of coal, had to put back to Provincetown yesterday afternoon, after she had started to answer the Mt. Hope's signal for aid.

LOWELL TRAVELING MAN

Preparing to invade South America With Lowell Products—Has Had Wide Experience

Mr. D. B. Dewar, who is located at Room 608 Sun Building, has been quietly working on plans for several months with a view to the invasion of South American markets with the products of Lowell factories and has within the past few days closed a contract with Senor Ramon Fina, a member of an influential family of Colombia, to accompany him on a business trip to that country. Mr. Fina is in every way qualified to co-operate with Mr. Dewar as he is perfectly familiar with the needs of the people of his country and in addition will be able, through his strong connections in Colombia to avoid waste of time or money by immediately getting in touch with the proper sources from which to secure business.

Mr. Dewar has been an extensive traveler in foreign countries during the past 15 years, first with the army in China and the Philippines, later going to Japan and the Hawaiian Islands, investigating business opportunities. In 1912 Mr. Dewar went to Ecuador, South America, and there assisted in securing over 400,000 acres of the finest timber land in the world for the North and South American Trading Co., which corporation also does a large trading business in that republic. Returning from Ecuador he established the office of the North and South American Trading Co. at Boston and secured over one hundred good mercantile agencies for them, including Standard Oil Co. and U. S. Steel Corporation. Between 1904 and 1912 he acted as selling representative for many large concerns in the United States covering territories from Maine to Illinois.

Among the lines which Mr. Dewar advises will find a ready market in South America are medium and low priced shoes, cotton and wool goods and other textiles, low priced shirt waists, tanned leather and stockings, machinery of all kinds, soaps and cheap jewelry, besides many others. Most of these are made in Lowell.

Mr. Dewar and Mr. Fina are planning to leave about March 1st. They will land at Baranquilla and from that point go by horses and pack train to about 35 cities, establishing at each place agents for the line carried. Mr. Fina has secured for Mr. Dewar options on vegetable ivory, hides and other products of his country which find a ready market in the United States. Mr. Dewar extends a cordial invitation to manufacturers and others to visit his office at any time, where questions relative to the business opportunities in South America will be cheerfully answered.

HOW TO KEEP WELL IN WINTER

Do not let your blood get thin this winter. For people who have a tendency toward anemia, or bloodlessness, winter is a trying season. Lack of exercise and fresh air, the more restricted diet, many things combine to lower the tone of the body and deplete the blood.

As soon as you notice the tired feeling, lack of appetite and shortness of breath that are warning symptoms of thin blood take a short treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Do not wait until the color has entirely left your cheeks, until your lips are white, your eyes are dull and your ears like mother of pearl. It is so much easier to correct thinning of the blood in the earlier stages than later.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. In this way the general health is improved, the appetite increases, the digestion is strengthened and new ambition and energy developed. Work becomes easier because it does not cause exhaustion.

Keep your system at its highest efficiency with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the great blood builder and nerve tonic. Your own druggist can supply you. A booklet "Building Up the Blood" will be mailed free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. It is well worth studying by all who do not enjoy complete health.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not need them. If you are one of these unfortunate, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optona; fill a two-ounce bottle with water and drop in one Optona tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this free prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind or nearly so, or who wear glasses, would never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Have your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong, magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.

MERCURY VICTIM

Mystery Surrounds Case of Woman Dying in Gloucester Hospital

GLouceSTER, Jan. 12.—Clouds of mystery began to surround the case of "Miss" Agnes Wheeler, who is supposed to be dying at the Haskins hospital here after having taken 15 grains of bichloride of mercury a week ago.

It became known for the first time yesterday that the real name of the young woman is Mrs. John Presson. Her husband died here five years ago, since which time she had been making her home with her mother on Curtis street here.

That Miss Wheeler, or Mrs. Presson, probably tried suicide by using carbolic acid, or some other substance that badly burned her throat was admitted yesterday by a member of the family of Dr. George A. Stone, who has attended her.

This person insisted that the young woman had taken the mercury; but let it be known that her throat was terribly burned, in a manner, which, according to physicians, would not be possible with bichloride tablets.

That the bichloride story may have been used, because of the publicity which has been given this means of poisoning recently to cover up an attempted suicide, was further suggested by the report of the hospital physician, who said that although Mrs. Presson has now been in the institution more than a week and the effects of the poison should be at their worst, she is resting comfortably and apparently suffering no pain or inconvenience.

The doctors who attended her had expected that the crucial stage of her case would be reached by this time.

BODY WILL BE EXHUMED

TO DETERMINE THE CAUSE OF
DEATH OF FORMER BOROUGHS
SHERIFF

TORRINGTON, Conn., Jan. 12.—The body of former Borough Sheriff William Palmer, who died suddenly last September, will be exhumed to determine the cause of death, according to an announcement made last night by Coroner Herman, who has been conducting an investigation. An inquest will be held. Palmer's widow, who moved to Philadelphia shortly after his death, has been summoned to appear.

DUE TO RELIGIOUS DIFFERENCES
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—"It is ridiculous for anyone to intimate that my husband died as a result of eating a sandwich of my making," declared Mrs. William Palmer, whose husband died suddenly last fall at Torrington, Conn. Mrs. Palmer is visiting friends.

"My husband died of heart disease and my relatives know it," said Mrs. Palmer. "I've decided that religious differences between a woman and her husband's people can cause more trouble and heartache than anything else in the world."

SCARLET FEVER OUTBREAK

In a School in Haverhill Has Aroused the Parent-Children Affected Were Not Quarantined

The mothers of the Riverside school in Haverhill are soon to storm the city hall to demand that the Crowell school building be closed until the epidemic of scarlet fever which they declare exists, is abated.

Several women of the district have organized the protest and will join the ranks of the protesters.

The allegation of the women is that there have been either 15 or 15 cases of scarlet fever at Riverside and that the school building is where the infection spread from, because some children who were suffering from the fever continued to go to school there. There are about 370 pupils in the Crowell school at present.

The women refuse to state at what time they will make the visit, declaring that should the time be known, they might find the hall empty, so all arrangements are being made secretly.

TO BAR CHEAP ALIEN LABOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Any alien laborer who within the year previous to his admission to the United States has not earned 30 per cent. of the wages paid in this country for the same work would be excluded from the United States by a bill introduced today by Rep. Gillette of Massachusetts. It is designed to bar cheap foreign labor.

GAS POISONING

Former Lowell Man Asphyxiated in Boston—
Police Notify Wife

The local police received a telephone communication from the police of Boston this afternoon to the effect that John Thombier, formerly of this city and said to have resided at 249 Westford street, died last night in his apartments in the North End from the effects of inhaling illuminating gas. His death was accidental, it is thought.

The Boston police wished to have the relatives of the dead man notified. His wife, who is a nurse in this city, was located and the sad news communicated to her.

JEROME ON THAW CASE

SAYS FINDING MAY AFFORD THAW
OPPORTUNITY TO REACH OTHER
COUNTRY OR KILL SOME MAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—William Travers Jerome, special attorney for New York state in its efforts to bring Harry K. Thaw back to Matteawan, said this afternoon that the action of the New Hampshire commission in finding Thaw sane would not affect the main issue. "Except that it may afford Thaw the opportunity of reaching some foreign country from which he cannot be extradited or of killing some man," said Jerome. "The report of the commission is of no consequence."

"The only question involved in the proceedings before Judge Aldrich is whether the governor of New Hampshire acted legally when he granted the extradition. Whatever way this question is decided, it will go to the United States supreme court. I am sure we would appeal if reversed and certainly the other side would continue the fight."

"If the supreme court upholds Gov. Feltner in extraditing Thaw," Jerome continued, "Thaw will be brought back to New York and tried on the conspiracy charges preferred against him following his escape from Matteawan and ultimately will be lodged back in the asylum whence he fled."

THE MEN WHO MAKE US

WILL MEET IN RICHMOND—MER-CHANT TAILORS' EXCHANGE TO HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Merchant Tailors' Exchange will be held this year in Richmond, Va., Feb. 10, 11 and 12. John J. Sullivan, L. E. T. of this city will attend the convention and will contribute to the garment exhibit. Mr. Sullivan never misses a meeting of the exchange and has been the recipient of many flattering encomiums relative to his exhibits. He said today that he would make up something for the exhibit in Richmond. The city council of Richmond has appropriated about $2000 for the exhibit and it promises to be a very big and very interesting affair. All garments sent will be insured, express paid both ways, and returned in the same condition as received. Mr. Sullivan believes that these meetings are very helpful because there is always an opportunity to corral new ideas. On this occasion special features have been arranged for all who attend. The ladies will be looked after by a special committee of Richmond ladies.

STATE INSPECTORS

State Inspector Stone and his assistants, Miss Bailey, will come to this city tomorrow to examine recipients of militia and state aid. They will remain in Lowell for three or four days. The examination is made every other year and is conducted in the office of the superintendent of state aid at city hall.

WILSON LEFT PASS CHRISTIAN

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss., Jan. 12.—After nearly three weeks of rest and recreation at a little cottage near the Gulf coast here, President Wilson last night bade farewell to the southland. He told Mayor Sautter and a crowd of citizens who gathered at the station that he had enjoyed his vacation, had benefited greatly by the change of climate and had obtained exactly the rest he had desired. The president and his family boarded their car early in the evening and retired. The party will arrive in Washington tomorrow.

TRIAL POSTPONED AGAIN

KILLED BY TRAIN

BELLEVILLE, N. J., Jan. 12.—While trying to save her 10-year-old daughter and seven-year-old son when all three had been trapped by an on-coming train on the Erie railroad trestle over Second river here yesterday, Mrs. Mary Oberwies, 33, either fell or was buried by the engine pilot into a 60-foot ravine and instantly killed. Her daughter Mary was struck by the train and so badly injured that she is dying in a Newark hospital. The boy outlived the train and escaped unhurt. The engineer said the mother and her children could easily have stepped to safety only the other track but Mrs. Oberwies seemed to be confused and dragged her children with her along the trestle in front of the locomotive.

COPPER STRIKE

Zero Weather Caused
an Increased Activity
Among Committee

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 12.—Further depletion of the executive forces of the Western Federation of Miners was apparent today in the copper strike district. The latest departure was that of O. N. Hilton, chief counsel of the federation, who departed for Leadville, Colo., where he has some cases coming to trial. It also became known that Charles Tanner, auditor of the federation who was deported and returned with Charles H. Moyer, had gone to Ishpeming-a-D'Neague in the iron district of the upper peninsula.

Below zero temperature accompanied by snow squalls resulted some increased activity among relief committees today. Miss Clarice Jones, in charge of the Associated Charities in Calumet, said that one of her difficulties was to persuade strikers to accept relief from any source other than the union.

SKATING AT SHEDD PARK

LARGE CROWD THERE YESTERDAY
—ARRANGEMENTS MADE TO HAVE
PARK LIGHTED AT NIGHT

The ice at Shedd park yesterday was in excellent condition and during the day over 3000 young people gathered here to enjoy themselves at this popular sport. Although there were several long cracks in the ice caused by the skaters venturing on it before it had thoroughly settled, the masters of this art moved over the ice at top speed. Several guards were on duty during the day to see that no rough games were played and but one accident was recorded.

John W. Kernan, superintendent of the park department, has requested Mr. Hunnewell of the Lowell Electric Light corporation to put reflectors on the lights around the park so that it will be illuminated in the evening.

FOR RACE BETTERMENT

DR. CATTELL, PROFESSOR AT CO-LUMBIA UNIVERSITY, TALKS ON EUGENICS AT CONFERENCE

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 12.—"In order that the existing population may be maintained or indeed that the race may survive, it will apparently be necessary to make a eugenic selection of healthy mothers and to provide that the cost of bearing and rearing children shall be equally shared by all."

This declaration was made here in an address by Dr. J. McKen Cattell, professor of philosophy in Columbia university, delivered before the National Conference on Race Betterment. Dr. Cattell's subject was "The Declining Birth Rate." "The Completed family of 15 is larger than six. The same conditions obtain for other college graduates."

"If the size of family of college graduates should continue to decrease as it did during the 19th century, students graduating in 1925 would have no children."

"If the birth-rates in England, Germany and France should continue to decrease as they have since 1850, there would be no children born a hundred years hence."

"In France the population is now stationary, while in some departments there are four deaths for every three births. In other nations an increasing population has been maintained, but through a decreasing death rate, but in England and elsewhere the death rate must increase, being now so low, on account of the age constitution of the population. It is only in Japan that the birth-rate is increasing, though it still remains high in Russia. Five dreddnoughts built annually in England are fragile toys compared with five million children born annually in Russia."

"Answers from 481 leading scientific men giving the causes which led to the limitation in their size of their families show that 175 were not voluntarily limited, while 255 were so limited. The cause voluntary limitation being health in 133 cases, expense in 88 cases and various other causes in 54 cases. "Childlessness was involuntary in two-thirds of the cases. In the standard of six cases out of seven."

"In over one-third of the families, the limitation was involuntary, due to infertility and other pathological causes, but if these had not obtained, voluntary limitation would have occurred later, in nearly all or perhaps in all cases. Neither the prevalence of the voluntary limitation of the size of family, nor the fact that the size of the family is limited directly or indirectly through fertility or ill health in more than three-fourths of the cases can be regarded with satisfaction."

ATTEMPT TO DYNAMITE BRIDGE

KIMBERLY, S. A., Jan. 12.—A desperate attempt to wreck with dynamite the great railroad bridge at Fourteen Streets, about 50 miles north of here, on the border of the Transvaal, was made last night. The rails were torn up by the explosion and portions of the structure were damaged but the bridge itself withstood the shock. Had the attempt succeeded main line communication would have been cut between Cape Town and the northern cities, including Johannesburg, Pretoria and Mafeking.

"EVERYONE AT CHURCH"

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 12.—As the result of an "Everyone at Church" campaign, it is estimated that 60,000 persons attended services at New Haven's 92 churches yesterday. This is about 25,000 more persons than usual.

STUBBORN FIRE IN WESTFORD ST.

Residence of Frank P. Moody, Badly Damaged by Fire and Water—House Burned in Centralville—Other Fires

The residence of Frank P. Moody, the well known druggist, 378 Westford street, was badly damaged by fire and water this forenoon, when a blaze was accidentally started while Mr. Moody was thawing out frozen pipes in the house. The damage, it is believed, will be over $1000.

Three rooms of the ell part of the building were badly burned, while the entire house and contents were damaged by smoke and water.

Mr. Moody was thawing out a pipe in a room on the second floor of the ell shortly after 9 o'clock this forenoon. He had completed the job and was just about to turn on the water, when a piece of paper came in contact with the gasoline torch. The lighted paper was blown between the two floors and a lively blaze immediately started. Mr. Moody rushed to the telephone and summoned the fire department. Truck Co. No. 2 of Westford street responded and an alarm from box 53 was sounded.

When the department reached the building they were handicapped as the blaze was between the partitions and had already made headway to the roof of the ell. Several ladders were placed against the house and three lines of hose and two chemical hose were added to the fighting force.

The bitter cold weather made it rather difficult for the members of the department, but nevertheless they stuck to their work and in a short time the fire was under control.

The twelve rooms of the house were damaged by water, while the three rooms of the ell were badly burned, especially the walls, floors and ceilings. The flames burst through the roof and also damaged the rear end of the building. The damage by water was considerable.

Before the firemen got through some of them were covered with ice, as the water froze over them wherever they came under the sweep of the stream.

Fire Department Busy

The fire department was kept busy this morning with three alarms, two of which rang in close to each other. Only one of these, box 612, was of any importance.

Box 612 was a fire in a cottage across from Beaver Brook opposite Beaver street. The firemen arrived there shortly after the alarm was sent in but a great deal of delay in throwing a stream on the blaze was occasioned by the fact that only a narrow footbridge led to the house. Over fifteen hundred feet of hose had to be dragged across this foot bridge by the firemen and then coupled onto an engine at the other end.

Before the firemen arrived on the scene the house was pretty well gutted. The furniture had all been removed and the family and neighbors were vainly endeavoring to extinguish the flames with buckets filled at the brook.

The dwelling was owned by J. He-nault. The building is a total loss.

Fire in Market Street

A fire in a restaurant in the Greek district in Market street, caused by a carelessly thrown lighted cigar, was responsible for an alarm from box 123 at 3:05 o'clock this morning. The fire apparatus arrived on the scene in quick time and the damage was slight.

There was a small fire in a cottage on Barclay street last night, the origin of which could not be learned, and a portion of the apparatus from the Branch street house was sent there, but upon arrival they learned that the blaze had been practically extinguished and but little damage had been done.

THE LOWELL GUILD

ANNUAL REPORT ISSUED BY ANNIE R. MOER, THE PRESENT MATRON

In the report of the Lowell Guild submitted by Annie R. Moer, the present matron, the work is reviewed and some suggestions made for the extension of the influence and utilities of the guild.

The matron thanks the benefactors of the institution for their kindly aid. The work of the district nurses and the milk station has been particularly valuable.

The officers for the present year are as follows: President, Mrs. Ida B. Merrill; vice-president, Mrs. James G. Hill; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Frederick G. Woodworth; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Arthur J. Murkland; clerk, Miss Mary G. Lamson; house committee, Mrs. Gardner W. Pearson; purchasing agent, Mrs. Wm. L. Robertson; milk station, Miss Roberta K. Sharp; district nurses, Mrs. Robert F. Marston; conference committee, Mrs. Wm. T. Trull; friendly visitors, Miss Katherine Faulkner; girls' club, Miss Harriet Colburn; needlework, Mrs. Otis K. Humphrey; infants' clothing, Mrs. C. E. French; sheets and pillow cases, Miss Josephine Wilder; compresses, Mrs. J. M. Andrews.

MANY INVITATIONS

Social invitations are pouring in at the matron's, but unfortunately the local militiamen are forced to decline all of them on account of the fact that they are getting everything in shape for the annual United States inspection which will be held in the latter part of the month.

The members of Co. G received an invitation to attend the athletic meet and parade under the auspices of Co. L in Lawrence, on the 22d instant. All the local officers have been invited to attend the annual ball of Co. J of the Sixth which will be held in Marlboro on Jan. 23. They were also tendered an invitation to participate in the annual ball of the Ninth regiment to be held in the East armory, Boston, on the 16th inst., and the annual ball of Co. B of the Sixth regiment to be held in Fitchburg on the 22d.

COUNCIL ACTS ON PILLSBURY SITE

Votes to Rescind and Repeal Action of 1913 Council in Voting to Purchase Estate for Hospital

After instructing the city clerk to notify the petitioners on the referendum to prevent the purchase of the Dr. Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital site as to the insufficiency of names on the referendum papers, the municipal council, at a meeting held this forenoon, voted to rescind and repeal the action of the council for 1913 in voting to purchase the Dr. Pillsbury estate. There is some question as to the legality of the council's action, it being contended by Commissioner Brown and others that the referendum proceedings should have been disposed of before such action was taken. Former Commissioner Cummings also holds to this opinion.

Mayor Murphy called to order at 11:15 with all members present.

The following were appointed weighers and surveyors: John E. Brown, Gilbert Daigneau, Walter C. Bruce, S. Henry Moore, John P. Quinn, Arthur T. Simpson and Michael F. Hetherman.

Francis J. O'Hare was appointed constable and his bond accepted. Minor petitions for pole locations and wire attachments were properly referred, as were claims for personal injury.

Porter Street Extension

The report of the commissioner of streets and highways relative to the extension of Porter street from High street to Pleasant street was accepted and the order accompanying it was read by the mayor.

Mr. Morse speaking to the order asked the date of the resolution and was told that it dated back to 1913. The date of the report, however, was Dec. 30. The order was laid upon the table for future consideration.

COLDEST WEATHER IN THREE YEARS

24 Below at Northfield, Vt. — Entire Country in Grip of Freezing Weather — Great Suffering — The South Fears Cold Wave — Crops Damaged

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—The breath from the Arctic which followed the St. Lawrence storm of yesterday brought the lowest temperatures in three years to New England today, although the extremes were not record breaking. Northfield, Vt., with a reading of 24 below zero headed the minus list, with 22 below at Burlington, 14 below at Concord, N. H., six below at Boston and Eastport.

The cold wave was harder to withstand than usual owing to the northwest gale which blew a mile a minute on Cape Cod and nearly 40 miles an hour in other parts of New England. The maximum wind velocity was 72 miles an hour on Cape Cod while during some of the squalls last night 45 and 50 miles were recorded in other parts of New England.

The cold wave was welcomed by the ice dealers of southern New England, who had feared another failure of their crop.

Poles Snapped in Two

The gale prostrated telegraph wires in parts of Vermont and southern Massachusetts, many of the poles being snapped in two. Communication with several points in Vermont was established by roundabout lines.

Private thermometers in many cases easily defeated the official weather bureau instruments in recording low temperatures, the variation in some cases being 10 to 15 degrees.

Some of the unofficial reports gave 34 below at St. Albans, Vt., 26 below at Manchester, N. H., 11 below at Springfield, Mass., 25 below at Sebago, Me., and 35 below at Kineo, Me.

FREEZING WEATHER

Entire Central and Eastern Sections in Grip of Cold Wave—25 Below at Temper Lake

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The entire central and eastern section of the country are today in the grip of hard freezing weather with prospects that it will continue another 24 hours at least and in some sections for a longer period. From the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic coast decided drops in temperature were reported last night and early today. Even in the south reports

MEXICO WILL NOT PAY

Government Will Default in Payment of Interest on Bonds Due This Month

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12.—The Mexican government will default in the payment of the semi-annual interest on the bonds of the internal and external debts due this month, according to a decision reached at a cabinet council which lasted until late last night.

The decision of the council was announced by Querado Moheno, Mexican foreign minister, who declared he had been instructed to notify all foreign governments of the default.

The principal internal and external loans of Mexico are held for the most part in the United States, Great Britain, France and Germany. Their denominations and dates of payment of the coupons are as follows: Consolidated international three per cent. silver bonds, coupons payable June 30 and Dec. 31, $12,320,250.

Five per cent. internal redeemable bonds, coupons payable April 1 and October 1, $95,222,000.

Five per cent. external consolidated gold loan of 1899, coupons payable Jan. 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1, $113,600,000.

Four per cent. gold bonds of 1904, coupons payable June 1 and December 1, $10,000,000.

UNITED STATES TO INTERN MEXICAN FUGITIVES AT FORT BLISS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—All the Mexican Federal soldiers now in the custody of the United States border patrol forces at Presidio, Tex., will be transferred to Fort Bliss, near El Paso, and interned there indefinitely. Sec. Garrison ordered the transfer late yesterday, with permission for the refugee women and children to accompany the soldiers if they desire.

There are about 5000 of the Mexican officers and men who fled across the Rio Grande when the victorious constitutionalists entered Ojinaga and with them, besides many women and children, are 1500 civilian refugees.

The latter are not prisoners and will be allowed to do as they please by the military authorities, though those desiring to remain in American territory will have to satisfy the immigration officers.

MAN'S LEG FRACTURED

A man by the name of John Carrigan fell and broke his right leg on Middlesex street opposite Pelke's drug store shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. The ambulance was called to the scene of the accident and the injured man taken to St. John's hospital.

Carrigan had just returned from several months' logging in the backwoods of Maine and had only been in the city a short time. The injured man slipped from the sidewalk and fell heavily to the pavement, doubling his leg under him in such a manner that the bone was fractured.

The many friends of Dr. Pierre Brunelle, who has been confined to his home in Moody street with a severe illness, will be pleased to learn his condition is rapidly improving and that he will be about in a few days.

NEW DISASTER IN SOUTHERN JAPAN

Tidal Wave Adds Its Terrors to Earthquakes and Eruption — Panic Among the Inhabitants — Many Killed

TOKIO, Japan, Jan. 13.—A tidal wave added its terrors to the earthquakes and eruption which struck Kagoshima, in southern Japan, yesterday, according to official advices. Hundreds of houses were destroyed and many persons killed or injured. The full extent of the disaster could not be ascertained this morning as all communication was cut off from the stricken district south of Kumamoto, 60 or 70 miles north of Kagoshima and even the navy department was unable to obtain a wireless report from the warships sent to the scene, although many messages were despatched to them.

Ashes to the depth of six inches have fallen in the seaport of Miyazaki, on the east coast of Kishiu. A postal employee who fled from Kagoshima, says the big postoffice building there collapsed during the earthquakes and tidal wave and that a great number of residences were ruined while many people and animals were killed or injured.

The navy and army departments are hastening succor and supplies to Kagoshima.

TWO CREWS ARE MISSING

VINEYARD HAVEN, Jan. 13.—A search was made in Nantucket sound today by the revenue cutter Acushnet for the crews of the schooner John Paul of Ellsworth, Me., and the British schooner Greta of Dorchester, N. B. The Paul was picked up abandoned by the cutter but later sank off here.

The Greta was at anchor last night off Cross Rip with her foremast gone and distress signals flying but could not be seen today.

The life savers battled for nearly two hours in an effort to round Great Point and reach the barge, but were driven back by the increasing gale.

LIVELY RUNAWAY

Caused Excitement on E. Merrimack Street This Afternoon

Shortly after 1 o'clock a runaway horse attached to a market wagon dashed over East Merrimack street at full gallop. At the corner of High and East Merrimack street two automobiles were in the path of the runaway but were waled aside by Officer Wilson, who saw the runaway approaching. The autos turned into Bartlett street and escaped the danger.

Officer Wilson made a grab for the horse's head and had a narrow escape from being thrown down. The animal dashed on with increased speed.

up Nesmith street and was caught at the top of the hill by a young man. The horse belonged to Mr. Clark at the corner of East Merrimack and Willow streets and had been left standing on the street. It was finally caught by a young man named Dugan.

SHOES AT $10 PER PAIR WIND OVERTURNED TRUCK

WILL REACH THAT PRICE SOON, ACCORDING TO SPEAKER AT N. Y. CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—In the opinion of speakers at the annual convention of the National Shoe Retailers' Association, which closes at a banquet tonight, the retail price of shoes may soon reach $10 per pair. Pure shoe laws already adopted in 25 states and several measures of the same nature now pending in congress were given as the chief causes for increasing the price of footwear. Both speakers and a majority of the 103 delegates present denounced the legislation which would cause all the shoes not made entirely of leather to be stamped adulterated or substitute leather.

The shoe retailers were told that if all shoes were made of all leather, 2,000,000 more hides per annum would be required in this country alone and with hides practically in control of the larger packing houses, it cannot be foreseen to what heights shoe prices might reach.

COUNCIL OF CHURCH BOARDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Representatives of 14 denominations said to embrace a constituency of more than 10,000,000 gathered here today at a meeting of the council of church boards of education in the United States.

Vice President Marshall and Senator Sterling of South Dakota are to speak at a meeting tonight.

FOUR FIREMEN PINNED UNDER HOOK AND LADDER—ONE SERIOUSLY INJURED

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 12.—A heavy three-horse hitch hook and ladder truck was overturned by a heavy gust of wind as it was responding to an alarm of fire early last evening and four firemen were pinned under it. One, ladderman Frank Quigley, was seriously injured while the others were bruised and shaken up. The fire was of little consequence being confined to a chimney. The truck was turning from Green street into Black when the wind blowing about 60 miles an hour caught it, broadside and overturned it.

BERNHARDT ON ROLL OF FAME

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—From Paris comes the news that at last the name of Sarah Bernhardt has been added to the roll of fame in the Legion of Honor. Her claims have been put forward several times before but the influence of a strong element in French society prevented the French actress from obtaining the decoration.

Among the famous women who are possessors of the red ribbon are Adeline Patry, Mme. Curie, the Baroness de Rothschild, Mme. Paquin and Mme. Dutrieu, the aviator.

CLEAN PLAYS BEST

"The main difference between sensational sociological plays and plays that are clean," said William A. Brady, "is that clean plays, when they are successful, last longer than those of the other kind and make more money in the end. Almost everybody is deceived by the zip and hurrah with which a sensational play starts off. In fact, as we have seen, there seems to be a sort of thing, and while it lasts there appears to be no chance on earth for the drama of decency. But there always comes an end to the craze, when we all go back to plays which draw on their merits without appealing to morbid curiosity or evil appetite of any kind."

A sensational play, no matter how successful for the time being, never goes round more than once. It may turn away droves of applicants for seats and be the talk of the entire country but it cannot repeat. This goes for farce as well as serious drama. Give me "Seven Keys to Baldpate" and anybody may have all the "Pigs in the Parlor" and the "Girl from Rector's" between here and Jericho, so far as I am concerned. When all these white slave plays and moving picture films have died out you will find "Way Down East" still being played, along with "Peg o' My Heart" and "The Little Minister." "The Old Homestead" and "In Old Kentucky," in none of which is there the slightest call upon any but the best sentiments of the public. Most of these dramas have been before the country for twenty years or so and nobody ever forgets them. On the other hand, how many of the names of sensational or crime plays produced in the same interval can you give off-hand?

PINKLETS

A Dainty Laxative That Gently Assists Nature

The day of harsh purgatives, of big cathartic pills is over—gone forever. No need any longer to swallow a nauseating dose to give impure the gentle assistance required. Pinklets, the new laxative, are tiny, pink granules, sugar coated, easy to take and smooth as velvet, in their operation.

Pinklets positively will not gripe. They produce not a single distressing symptom, yet their action is certain and thorough.

Pinklets are just the laxative you need to arouse the lazy, sluggish bowels and torpid liver. Don't keep on using harsh, strong purgatives for they always unsettle the stomach and leave the bowels irritated and in a worse condition than before. Rely on Pinklets to gently assist the bowels and be free from constipation.

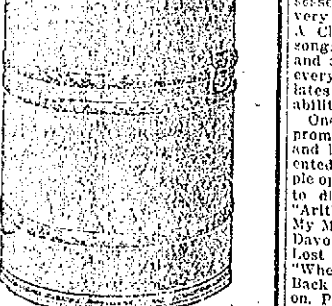

These little pills are a corrective for bad breath, will clear the complexion and are recommended for torpid liver, biliousness, headaches and constipation.

Any druggist can supply you with Pinklets 25 cents per bottle. Write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a Pinklet book which tells all about the right way to treat constipation.

COMMON SENSE

ABOUT COLDS

The Worst Thing You Can Do For a Cold is to Pamper It.

No. 1.

We never learn how to treat a cold until we understand what it is. In the first place it isn't really "a cold" at all.

It is the result, not of cold weather, but of wrongly used heat.

We live and work in over-heated houses—offices and factories—we travel in poorly ventilated street cars.

Our skins and membranes become diseased and over-sensitive, and we become easy marks for the germs of influenza, grip, and pneumonia.

With the first little exposure to cold or damp weather we begin to cough and sneeze and shiver.

Then we say "we have caught cold"—as a matter of fact we have simply become infected by disease germs.

Then the usual thing for us to do is to pamper ourselves some more.

We shut ourselves up in an over-heated room, put hot applications on our chest, drink hot tea and a host of other things, the only result of which is to still further weaken our systems and cause the germs to multiply at a frightful rate.

The wonder is that we ever survive at all.

What we really need when that first sneeze and shiver comes is—

Plenty of fresh air and a gentle tonic to promote a vigorous, wholesome circulation of the blood—and a gentle laxative to carry off the germs after the pure air has begun to destroy them. Fresh air and pure blood are the deadliest enemies of disease germs.

The fresh air you can get anywhere.

The tonic and laxative you will find most successfully combined in Hill's Cough Remedy.

This is not a new remedy. For over fifteen years it has been sold by druggists all over the United States. It has saved hundreds of thousands of people from disastrous effects of neglected colds.

It never fails to cure.

It is guaranteed and your money will be refunded if it does not cure. It has no unpleasant after effects. It simply helps nature to rid your system of the deadly germs that have infected it.

Be sure to get the genuine—Hill's Cough Remedy. The box with the red top and Mr. Hill's picture on it.

It is manufactured by W. H. Hill Company of Detroit, and is sold by druggists everywhere. Price 25 cents.

A first or second class engineer's license. A first class license is preferred. The examination will consist of an experience sheet, copying, handwriting and arithmetic.

The salary is $3.50 a day, and only citizens of the United States who have been residents of Massachusetts for the past year, and of Lowell for the six months last have a right to apply. Applications should be filed at once.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Despite the cold weather of yesterday the over popular Opera House was crowded to the doors, and well it might be for the bill of fare is "Bought and Paid For," which comes, Daniel Frohman's "Port of Doom" with its one of the most dramatic and sensational plots ever produced.

The music, heralded "Sapho" is another beautiful picture and is the only version authorized by the composer, who wrote the book.

The series of the play follow his work very closely, and are laid in the locale of the story. It is beautifully acted, with Cecil Guyon and Charles Krauss, two well known French actors in the leading roles. The remainder of the program includes comedies from the Viagraph, Essanay, and Pathe players, and the verdict of the audience as it filed out of the lobby last night was "the best yet."

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

Frank Mills, who has the leading role in William A. Brady's success "Bought and Paid For," which comes, the Lowell Opera House tomorrow night, is an enthusiastic and successful photographer, an outdoor photographer, and has one of the most elaborate studios in New York. Here, surrounded by his many forms of photographic apparatus, he passes his summer vacation working harder than he does on tour.

In the past three years Mr. Mills has gone to the color world and has made some wonderful specimens of still life in their natural colors. So far his experiments have been conducted indoors, inasmuch as it is very difficult to get color effects by the use of artificial light.

The light he uses is the same as is employed by moving picture photographers and is making indoor pictures.

Just how this light is utilized he is keeping it a secret, but as soon as his researches are completed he says he will announce it to the trade.

His results are artistic but in its present shape the invention is commercially of little value as a small plate the size of the hand is used in the production of twenty-two dollars to finish.

The fact that he appears nightly at the theatre does not dampen his ardor as a photographer. He is very close with his camera, he is out taking pictures in every city he visits.

Owing to a change in the time table of the Y. M. C. A. at Hartford, Ct., it will be impossible for the company to arrive here in time to give a matinee performance.

KEITH'S THEATRE

The headline attraction at B. F. Keith's theatre this week is an act of nine persons in an offering entitled "School Boys and Girls," written by Gus Edwards and equally as pleasing as the other act of the same name, which has appeared in this city in the past. It has to do with "Graduating Day" in a country school and in the small company is represented everywhere by the "School Boys and Girls."

One of the features that stands out prominently in this act is the youth and life of the cast. They are all talented in their respective ways and ample opportunities are offered every night to display them. The songs include "Arithmetic" by the company; "Since My Marguerite Became a Sufferer," by David Seld; "What Do You Mean You Love Your Dog," by "Sassy" Cliff; "When the Whole World Has Gone Back on You," Miss Aubrey; "Come on, Play Ball With Me," Vera Stormy; "The Paper Hat Brigade," Miss Aubrey and et cetera. All are well received and the act is sure to prove popular during the remainder of the week.

Among the better class of acts on the stage today, and one of the best known in the Y. M. C. A. is a clever ventriloquist. This gentleman is accompanied by a likely looking figure dressed as a bell-hop and the scene in a New York club. The act is entitled "The Clubman and the Bell Boy."

and "Charles," as the bell-hop is called, talks, jokes and sings in a way that is sure to amuse the patrons of this theatre house. A whistling solo is rendered with the greatest ease on the part of the ventriloquist and he also smokes cigarettes and drinks without even letting up with the entertainment.

A little sketch that various from the usual is offered by Frank Wood and Bessie Wyde, who appear in an offering called "Good Night." They have a pleasing appearance and the dancing and singing is really good.

"Motoring" by Harry Tate and company, including a couple of good comedians, creates considerable laughter on the part of the audience and this act is the most different from what is usually seen. There is no singing or dancing goes with the number, but the continued talk of the motorist, his chauffeur and his son, who are taken down on a country road and have little knowledge of the parts of the auto, is funny and upholds the comedy part of the show.

"A Cry in the Night" by Will H. Vedder and Kate Morgan, tells an interesting story in which a strike leader takes the part of an operative who has refused to grant his employees the increase which the leader has asked for.

Assist and Scott are a clever pair of male dancers and they also bring with them some original numbers, while Loretta and Bud, the latter a humorist, are seen in a posing act that has appeared in this city in past years. The balance of the act is taken from late happenings and are very educational as well as amusing.

of the Merrimack Square theatre has arranged a comedy to be presented by the players of this popular house this week, and the first performance of the play which was given yesterday made a real hit. The piece presented is entitled "Divorcement," and is a three-act comedy from the pen of Victorian Sardou.

The story of the play concerns a young man of rather whimsical tastes, whose wife, also whimsically inclined, endeavors to play a few pranks on her husband by flirting with another man. The flirting threatens to take on a serious side and divorce is suggested as the only practical escape from a situation that promises to end seriously for all. During the process of straightening up the mix-up, as one could call it, there are humorous scenes that are sure to please all theatre-goers.

As usual the principal parts are being handled by Miss Grace Young and Mr. Walter Scott Weeks, and they both excel in comedy. All parts are well handled and the singing is up to the standard. Others taking part in this clever piece are: Marie Reels, Frank DeCamp, Edith Winchester, Stewart E. Wilson, Edward D'Elize, John C. Burns, Howard Sydney and Martin Miskell.

The photo-plays are again of choice creations and all the films are very pleasing. The entertainment will be repeated twice daily for the remainder of the week.

EUGENIC BABY

Doctor Claims Theory of Influencing the Sex is Confirmed

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—As proof of his statement that the sex of children is under human control, Dr. Arthur Miner Lane of 423 Boylston street yesterday pointed proudly to the girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Brien of Holliston.

The little one, just a week old yesterday, has already been called the mascot of the Winter League, for her father is a prominent and popular member of that well-known organization.

The youngster was seen yesterday at a private hospital on Commonwealth avenue. The wife of a girl certainly looked healthy and posed without much weeping for a picture. Mrs. O'Brien also seemed in the best of health and Dr. Lane said Dr. Lane was simply jubilant for the claim that his oft-repeated statement that the sex of a child can be determined before birth had been proven true.

"Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien have long wished for a girl baby," said Dr. Lane to a reporter yesterday. "They had known for some time that I had claimed to be able to influence sex, by suggestions to the prospective parents and proper treatment."

"The little girl whom you see before you is proof that my claim is true, that the sex of a child depends entirely on the time of conception."

"This is the first eugenic baby of the year in Boston and I dare say that there are not many others in the entire country. It is a fact that at least 50 per cent. of the babies born in this world are living proof of the old, but true saying, 'accident of birth.' They may be born boys or girls, as circumstances dictate. But the sex can just as well be determined in advance if only the proper instructions are carried out by the prospective parents."

"It may seem very marvellous and all that sort of thing, while, as a matter of fact, it is really very simple if the proper instructions are followed."

Dr. Lane derides the idea that feeding a prospective mother more or less sugar will have any effect on the sex of the child. He claims that there is no great mystery attached to the method of influencing sex, but that it simply means following out well defined laws of nature.

RESTOCKING RANGES WITH ELK

Butte, Montana hunters are watching with considerable interest the efforts of sportsmen throughout the state to restock the ranges with elk. Capt. C. Gay Stivers of Butte has been particularly active in this regard and has made application through the game warden's office for three cars of elk, that is about 120 head, to stock the ranges in the vicinity of Rock Creek, near Bonita and near Georgetown. The work of distributing the elk at the latter place will probably devolve upon General Manager E. P. Mathewson of the Washoe smelter at Anaconda, who is himself an ardent sportsman. It is planned to place one carload, about forty-one head, near Bonita, and two cars near Georgetown.

Later in all probability Capt. Stivers will make an effort to get some elk to stock the range in the vicinity of Moose Creek, or north of Butte, since the elk cannot be trapped until the snow sets deep, in all probability no more will be taken toward stocking the ranges until the months of January or February. The elk are protected until 1915 by law in all the counties in which it is proposed to ship them. Since the railroads are now carrying fish fry and eggs free, it is very probable that some similar concessions will be made with reference to the shipment of elk.

St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield, London.

Some one has discovered from the parish rate books that he once worked at the case in an office housed in his day in the Lady chapel of the church.

Franklin records in his autobiography that he worked in Bartholomew Close, but he says nothing about the place. He mentioned that he was employed on setting up the second edition of Woolston's "Religion of Nature," and in that book is a quaint little engraving showing the top floor of the factory with the compasses, racks. The posts of these racks were still there in 1855 before the Lady chapel was cleared of its workaday fittings and prepared for worship again.

In the wall over the Lady Chapel altar (and in Franklin's day actually in the printing room) are five tall niches, probably filled with figures of saints before the reformation. It is now proposed to commemorate Franklin by placing one or more "female saints" in these niches.

ZERO WEATHER

Blizzard and Storm Lashed the New England Coast

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A bitter winter gale, accompanied by zero weather, lashed the New England coast yesterday. Scores of ships were impeded and heavy cutters last night were driving through the storm to the rescue of two that are believed to be wrecks.

On one of these are caught a dozen United States life-savers sharing the hull of the vessel's crew, whom they made a forlorn hope attempt to take off in the teeth of the storm.

Every wireless station on the coast last night was probing the dark in an effort to locate and bring aid to missing vessels.

On shore one person was probably fatally hurt by the storm several others were frozen and untold discomfort was caused by the sudden drop in temperature.

Boston harbor was the scene of the thrilling salvage of a dozen vessels that had broken loose in the wind, while Chatham and other ports along shore were crowded with shipping that had scurried to shelter.

Days may pass before the full tale of the storm's damage to shipping is told, as the fierce off-shore wind, rising to 70 miles an hour, drove many schooners far out to sea, and some of these have probably perished.

Late last night the revenue cutters Gresham and Acushnet were struggling to reach the four-masted schooner Mt. Hope, which was in dire distress off Chatham.

Their efforts are stimulated by the fact that she has on board Capt. Elizabeth F. Deane and the whole crew of the Old Harbor life saving station. Their plucky response to the distress signal of the American flag, down Union down at the mizen peak of the schooner, has resulted in their sharing the dangers of its crew.

They launched their big boat and after a desperate struggle with the sea are known to have reached the ship in safety; but the awful wind cut them off completely from any hope of return to shore. The seas were so high that the Gresham, shoal of coast, had to put back to Provincetown yesterday afternoon, after she had started to answer the Mt. Hope's signal for aid.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburg Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

THE STATE TAX

Chairman White Issues Warning to Legislators—Sees Big Increase

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A state tax of nearly $12,000,000 as compared with $8,000,000 last year, is the warning issued to the legislature yesterday by House Chairman Thomas W. White of the committee on ways and means.

In a letter to each member of the house he says: "It seems proper to call your attention early in the year to the condition of the expenditures and revenues of the commonwealth for the coming year and to ask your co-operation, regardless of politics, in safeguarding the treasury and curbing the state tax to the extent that it shall not become oppressive to the people of the different cities and towns."

Estimated revenue for 1914 9,550,053.53

Figures Compare Favorably With Older Organizations—O'Brien Has Highest Average

The Manufacturers' League is growing stronger with each succeeding year and the standard of its bowlers today is inferior to no league in the city. The Tremont and Suffolk team and the U. S. Cartridge aggregation are now tied for first place in the race.

Although the Merrimacks stand at the bottom of the ladder they hold the high team total as well as the high team single record. Frank O'Brien leads the individual averages with 24. The figures are as follows:

High team total, Merrimacks, 1418.
High team single, Merrimacks, 513.
High three-string total, J. O'Brien, 118.
J. P. S., 22.
High single, Buckley, U. S. B., 113.
Individual averages over 85:

RESERVE BANK FOR BOSTON

With all the arrogance of the old time when they were absolute masters of the financial system of the country and part dictators of its policies, the bankers of New York representing Wall street and the money trust are striving to make the revised currency bill a tool for the satisfying of their greed and their recovery of power. With brazen effrontery they are seeking to convince the president and congress that the needs of the entire northwest demand that one great reserve bank be established in New York for the accommodation of New England. Unfortunately for their contention New England does not see the matter in the same light but through the voice of its bankers and business men is demanding the location of a federal reserve board in Boston to serve the financial needs of New England.

The New York bankers are still in favor of concentration regardless of the fact that the currency bill was passed to put an end to financial concentration in favor of a few powerful financiers. The ends of the new bill, they say, would be best served were there one extremely strong bank in New York heavily capitalized, and seven weak ones. They ignore the fact that the government aims at the advantage of all sections equally and will protect all reserve banks whether north, south, east or west. What the answer of the federal government to the selfish bankers of New York will be may be inferred from the remark of Secretary McAdoo, who said that the power of a bank does not lie entirely in its capitalization.

Owing to the varying needs of different localities it is not possible that the division of the country into districts to be served by the reserve banks can be done satisfactorily on a geographical basis. The establishing of rural credits and the demands of the industrial centers make the claims of various cities territorially unequal, but the growing needs of Boston is a strong argument against the establishment of a reserve bank in New York to meet the needs of New England. If the Reserve Bank Organization committee heeds the opinions of people generally they will know that the people of this section desire the location of a reserve bank in Boston and that furthermore the feeling is strong against looking to New York for the industrial or financial improvement of New England.

The agitation for the establishment of one of the reserve banks in Boston is based on something stronger than the extravagant claims of New York. New England is a wealthy and compact trade district and the convenience of our business men would be served best by a New England reserve bank. Were one to be established in Boston it would serve as a reservoir for our financial system, and it would enable the local banks to get accommodations within the area of New England which they are now forced often to seek in New York or elsewhere. The financial standing of firms and individuals, the state of our business institutions, the solvency of prospective business men can be determined with greater facility by a Boston reserve bank than by one in New York covering the claims of the entire northeast.

It is high time that the financial and industrial interests of New England would unite in breaking the power of a selfish and greedy clique in New York by protesting strenuously against the location of a reserve bank in New England. The country has been too long at the mercy of a powerful few and their power must be broken. For the sake of New England's future and for the principle involved Boston should be given the location of one of the federal reserve banks without question. The good effect of the new currency law will be counteracted to the extent that the money kings of Wall street can continue to manipulate the finances of this country.

CHANGES IN TRAINS

Considering the tendency of all railroads to take trains off the lines which do not pay for their service, we are extremely fortunate in our new Boston and Maine schedule on the southern division which does not change the train time in any essential particular. Most of the changes in the running time from here to Boston consist in the running of the trains a little earlier as for instance in the case of the train that formerly left here at 2:31 p.m., 4:30 p.m. and 7:43 p.m.; the new running time will be 2:30 p.m., 4:30 p.m. and 7:41 p.m. Trains from Boston to Lowell also run at practically the same time, though there are several changes that will mean a great deal to the individual who counts on getting to the depot some seconds before his train starts.

The 12:05 theatre train from Boston has been discontinued by the public service commission which almost ordered it a year ago. Though popular with its patrons, it was not patronized to a sufficient extent to make it pay and with the desire for efficiency the road felt constrained to discontinue it. Though possibly it may be revived some time in the future, it is better that the road should curtail as far as possible at the present time a limited service even is better than receivership. The report of the Boston chamber of commerce referred to in these columns yesterday urged on the public the necessity for patience at this critical time.

The new schedule has one defect that was in the old also—a space of almost one hour and a half in the middle of the afternoon without any train to Boston on the southern division. It may be inopportune to request some improvement at this time, but the service cannot be considered satisfactory until this defect is remedied. Without putting on additional trains it might be possible to rearrange the schedule sufficiently to overcome this defect and if this were done it would be publicly appreciated.

CURTAILMENT OF WASTE

In the textile industries and other great manufactures of this country the greatest strides of recent years have been made in the elimination of waste. With the recognition of the need for the adoption of general efficiency it has become apparent that there are untold possibilities in the utilization of waste products or by products, the getting of the greatest possible result with the least expenditure, and the adoption of scientific methods of manufacture which save investment.

Yet though the strides towards the elimination of waste or reducing it to a minimum have been great recently, there are still many avenues of waste by which the ultimate profit of the manufacturer and stockholders is reduced. It is estimated that, in the textile industry, there is an annual loss of $70,000,000 on the raw cotton because of poor baling and this is all the more regrettable when we consider that the cotton crop is never more profitable than is necessary to meet the needs of the world. Formerly cotton was baled in a careless fashion that permitted much of it to go to waste, but now it is being seen that greater care in the compressing and wrapping of the bales has a direct return in greater financial results.

It is also becoming generally recognized that the employment of a low standard of labor even at a much reduced wage involves ultimate loss for what is saved in wages is more than lost in waste. The efficient worker uses less stock and manufactures a better commodity than the inefficient worker and as in the case of proper baling, there is also here great need for improvement. Efficiency must concern itself with the worker to see that the vast loss from waste in production is reduced to a minimum.

NEW POLICE CHANGES

Some new police changes indicate that somebody has seen the light with regard to the impropriety of imposing punishment for political preference on men who have given long and efficient service to the city. Whether these changes were made voluntarily or are the result of general public discussion is not apparent, but the fact that they are made is of itself sufficient to prove that some alleged moves "for the good of the service" were not based on sound judgment. No matter how increased the public may be against a police official for real or supposed political leanings there will be no permanent support of any measure which would punish loyalty by injustice. It is a poor introduction of the merit system to take men old in years and in point of service and send them on beats usually patrolled by young and vigorous men, and though some biased commentators may at first approve of this action or commend it, fairness will in the end prevail and there will be general condemnation of a system of promotion or punishment based on real or alleged political preference.

PLENTY OF WINTER

A steamship company advertising cruises to Panama, the West Indies and other mild climates uses as an inducement to the people of this region to take a trip, what it calls a "warning" of the weather bureau to the effect that we will have "plenty of winter." If the winter in here for us is of the brand we have had for the past week or so there is no reason why an announcement of a few months of it should be regarded as a warning. Panama and the West Indies may look attractive to the invalid, but to the sturdy people of New England there could be nothing more delightful for January and February than the weather we are now enjoying. We will have tropical weather enough in six months and unlike the cuckoo there are few of us who like perpetual summer. For the present, far better that we have the weather of cold and ice and clear bracing airs than the milder climate of Panama. Let us rejoice at the "warning" of the weather bureau and prepare ourselves to enjoy "plenty of winter."

TAFT FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

Without apparent authority it is being generally circulated in the press that on the retirement of Chief Justice White from the supreme bench President Wilson will appoint Ex-President Taft to take his place. In the discussion of the matter there has not been a dissenting voice against the suggestion of selection. In experience, qualities of mind and heart, knowledge of the law, or other essential qualifications, the great ex-president embodies in his person all that a chief justice should have, and the country as a whole would support President Wilson were he to recognize his splendid qualities and make him successor to the eminent jurist who now holds the elevated position.

So the rebel army under General Villa is preparing to move south. If General Huerta has not forgotten the example of Diaz and the fate of Madero he is preparing to move south ahead of it.

If these police moves keep up under the guise of efficiency the force will certainly be well acquainted with the city—geographically.

The federal court commission has declared Harry Thaw sane. The public has known that all along.

"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Upset Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach?—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sour, gassy, and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal bill without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, your sink don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

What do people who don't like Irish stew do after they have had a forenoon's session with the dentist?

Sometimes a man is so pleased with his self-dental when he has gone one day without smoking his customary one cigar, that the next day he smokes three to reward himself.

When women have the right to vote, will the political advertisements be put in the next column to the announcements of the bargain sales?

Everybody knows that "Paradise Lost" is one of the great classics, and once in a while you will meet somebody who has read it.

In the old days old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard to get her poor dog a bone, but nowadays Tupper depends largely on the neighbors' garbage pails.

You can't get a country boy to admit that castor oil is good even to grease a wagon with.

These tales of bagmen and District Attorney Whitman is bringing out recalled to a veteran politician the experience of the boss of a western city, who was something in the way of a political collector himself.

One day near the close of a hot campaign he managed to round up some $5000. With a couple of his pals he had a jubilant celebration. About 2 in the morning he was clinging to a lamp post and trying to call a cab when two of his leaders hove in sight. He knew they would rob him if they suspected he had money. Bracing himself he greeted them with: "Hello, fellows, lucky you happened along. I'm dead broke and want a

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine article see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

FAMOUS NOTRE DAME IS MASS OF FLAMES

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—Notre Dame cathedral, famous the world over, caught fire this afternoon from a blaze that originated in the business district. For a time it was thought the fire was under control but it was revived by a strong wind and spread from a hardware store, where it started, to other structures.

COST $1,000,000

The great edifice was built on the same plan as the Notre Dame church in Paris and the cost was over a million dollars. It is situated near Mont Royal and is famous all over the world on account of its large gong, which weighs several tons, and when rung is heard all over the city of Montreal. The church is in charge of the Sulpician Fathers and is one of the finest in the country, although not the largest. There are very few tourists who go to the Canadian metropolis who do not visit the Notre Dame church.

COUNCIL ACTS ON PILLSBURY SITE

Votes to Rescind and Repeal Action of 1913 Council in Voting to Purchase Estate for Hospital

After instructing the city clerk to notify the petitioners on the referendum to prevent the purchase of the Dr. Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital site as to the insufficiency of names on the referendum papers, the municipal council, at a meeting held this forenoon, voted to rescind and repeal the action of the council for 1913 in voting to purchase the Dr. Pillsbury estate. There is some question as to the legality of the council's action, it being contended by Commissioner Brown and others that the referendum

CONTAGIOUS HOSPITAL

Action on Pillsbury Site—F. E. Dunbar Says Vote of Council Does Not Change Program

Commenting upon the action of the municipal council in voting to rescind the action of the council for 1913 relative to the purchase of the Pillsbury estate for a contagious hospital, Frank E. Dunbar, counsel for Dr. Pillsbury, said:

"The action of the municipal council, in passing a vote purporting to rescind the order appropriating money for the purchase of the Pillsbury property for a contagious hospital purposes, adds nothing new of enduring consequence to the apparent situation. This action was discounted by the few Andover street remonstrants in the event that they were denied assistance by the courts. Under the charter a further period of ten days was open to these remonstrants to secure and file the names which their referendum petitions lacked. Had instead of submitting the issue to the voters upon the referendum petition, the action of the municipal council now withdrawn from the voters the important referendum privilege of our new charter which its many advocates boasted that it would provide. As has been repeatedly stated in the local press, the only course which would guarantee to the voters the opportunity to vote 'yes' or 'no' upon the Pillsbury site was by filing with the municipal council petitions for the initiative as required by section 65 of the charter.

I understand these petitions are in circulation and, being widely signed. The initiative requires the signatures of at least 20 per cent. of the aggregate number of votes cast for the candidates for mayor at our latest municipal election and then it may be invoked upon any measure which the council has a legal right to pass. The filing, therefore, of initiative petitions signed by some 2000 or 2700 voters will, unless the Pillsbury site shall

WILL REACH THAT PRICE SOON, ACCORDING TO SPEAKER AT N. Y. CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—In the opinion of speakers at the annual convention of the National Shoe Retailers Association, which closes at a banquet tonight, the retail price of shoes may soon reach $10 per pair. Pure shoe has already adopted in 25 states and several measures of the same nature now pending in congress were given as the chief causes for increasing the price of footwear. Both speakers and a majority of the 50 delegates present decried the legislation which would cause all the shoes not made entirely of leather to be stamped adulterated or substitute leather.

The shoe retailers were told that if all shoes were made of all leather 2,000,000 more hides per annum would be required in this country alone and with hides practically in control of the larger packing houses it cannot be foreseen to what heights shoe prices might soar.

CLEAN PLAYS BEST

"The main difference between sensational sociological plays and plays that are clean," said William A. Brady, "is that clean plays, when they are successful, last longer than those of the other kind and make more money in the end. Almost everybody is deceived by the zip and burrah with which a sensational play starts off. In fact, as we have seen, there seems to be a sort of thing, and while it lasts there appears to be no chance on earth for the drama of decency. But there always comes an end to the craze, when we all go back to plays which draw on their merits without appealing to morbid curiosity or evil appetite of any kind."

"A sensational play, no matter how successful for the time being, never goes round more than once. It may turn away droves of applicants for seats and be the talk of the entire country but it cannot repeat. This goes for farce as well as serious drama. Give me 'Seven Keys to Baldpate' and anybody may have all the 'Gilt' in the '23' and the 'Gilt' from Rector's between here and Jericho, so far as I am concerned. When all these white slave plays and moving picture films have died out you will find 'Way Down East' still being played, along with 'Peg o' My Heart' and 'The Little Minister.' 'The Old Homestead' and 'In Old Kentucky' in none of which is there the slightest call upon any but the best sentiments of the public. Most of these dramas have been before the country for twenty years or so and nobody ever forgets them. On the other hand, how many of the plays of salacious or crime plays produced in the same interval can you give off-hand?"

Pinklets positively will not grip. They produce not a single distressing symptom, yet their action is certain and thorough.

COMMON SENSE

ABOUT COLDS

The Worst Thing You Can Do For a Cold Is to Pamper It.

No. 1.

We never learn how to treat a cold until we understand what it is. In the first place it isn't really "a cold" at all.

It is the result, not of cold weather, but of wrongly used heat.

We live and work in over-heated homes—offices and factories—we travel in poorly ventilated street cars.

Our skins and membranes become distended and over-sensitive, and we become easy marks for the germs of influenza, grip, and pneumonia.

With the first little exposure to cold or damp weather we begin to cough and sneeze and shiver.

Then we say "We have caught cold"—as a matter of fact we have simply become infected by disease germs.

Then the usual thing for us to do is to pamper ourselves some more.—

We shut ourselves up in an over-heated room, but hot applications on our chest, drink hot tea and do a lot of other things, the only result of which is to still further weaken our systems and cause the germs to multiply at a frightful rate.

The wonder is that we ever survive at all.

What we really need when that first sneeze and shiver comes is—

Plenty of fresh air and a gentle tonic to promote a vigorous circulation of the blood—and a good remedy to carry off the germs after the pure air and pure blood destroy them. Fresh air and pure blood are the deadliest enemies of disease germs.

The Fresh air you can get anywhere.

The tonic and laxative you will find most marvellously comforting in Hill's Cascara Bromide Quinine tablets.

This is not a new remedy. For over fifteen years it has been sold by druggists all over the world. It has saved hundreds of thousands of people from disastrous effects of neglected colds.

It is never fails to cure.

It is guaranteed and your money will be refunded if it does not cure.

It has no unpleasant after effects. It simply helps nature to rid your system of the deadly germs that have infected it.

Your druggist will tell you that it is a thoroughly reliable standard remedy.

Be sure to get the genuine—Hill's Cascara Bromide Quinine. The box with the red top and Mr. Hill's picture on it.

It is manufactured by W. H. Hill Company of Detroit, and is sold by druggists everywhere. Price 25 cents.

A first or second class engineer's license. A first class license is preferred. The examination will consist of an experience sheet, copying, handwriting and arithmetic.

The salary is $4.50 a day, and only citizens of the United States who have been residents of Massachusetts for the past year, and of Lowell for the six months last have a right to apply. Applications should be filed at once.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Despite the cold weather of yesterday the over popular Opera House was crowded to the doors, and well it might be for the feature offering is all that is claimed of it and then some. Daniel Frohman's "Port of Doom," with Max Laura Saver in the leading role is one of the best things that the Famous Players have ever produced. The much heralded "Sapho" is another beautiful picture and is the only version of the story of the Greek goddess of love, who wrote the book. The scenes of the play follow his work very closely, and are laid in the locale of the story. It is beautifully decorated with Uccello Geyon and Charles Krauss, two well known French actors in the leading roles. The remainder of the program includes comedies by Alphonse Vitaphone, Essanay, and Pathé players, and the verdict of the audience as it filed out of the lobby last night was the best yet.

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

Frank Mills, who has the leading role in William A. Brady's success "Bought and Paid For," which comes to the Lowell Opera House tomorrow night, is an enthusiastic indoor photographer, and has one of the finest photographic studios in New York. Here, surrounded by his many forms of photographic apparatus, he passes his summer vacation working harder than he does on tour.

In the past three years Mr. Mills has gone to Africa, India, and has made some wonderful specimens of still life in their natural colors. So far his experiments have been conducted indoors, but he is only able to get color or effects by the use of artificial light. The light he uses is the same as is employed by moving picture photographers, and when working indoors he is free from the usual indoor negatives.

Just how this light is utilized, he is keeping it a secret, but as soon as his researches are completed he says he will announce it to the trade. His results are artistic but in its present shape the invention is commercially of little value, as a small plate the size of a hand costs in the neighborhood of twenty-two dollars to finish.

The fact that he appears nightly at the theatre does not dampen his ardor as a photographer, for even when armed with his camera, he is out taking pictures in every city he visits.

Coming to a change in the time table of the Lowell Water Department, it will be impossible for the company to arrive here in time to give a matinee performance.

KEITH'S THEATRE

The headline attraction at B. F. Keith's theatre this week is an act of nine persons in an offering entitled "School Boys and Girls," written by Gus Edwards and equally as pleasing as the other act.

Which has appeared in this city in the past. It is a country school and in the small company is represented everybody from the "tough guy" to the millionaire son. Features in this act is "Sassy Little" or Dolly Cliff, who possesses a sweet voice and also dances very well. The others, including "Tizzy a Christy," are very good and the songs in the production are very catchy and are put over in a way that makes every one a hit. The dialog is full of wit and brilliancy and proves the ability of the author, Gus Edwards.

One of the features that stands out prominently in this act is the youth and life of the cast. They are all talented in their respective ways and ample opportunity is offered every one to display them. The songs include "Arithmetic" by the company; "Since My Marguerite Became a Souffle-keller," Dave Seld; "What Do You Mean You Lost Your Dog Dolly Sassy" Bill; "When the Whole World Turns Back on You" Miss Aubrey; "Come on, Play Ball With Me" Vera Starnay; "The Paper Hat Brigade," Miss Aubrey and scholars. All are well received and the act is sure to prove popular during the remainder of the week.

Among the better class of acts on the stage today and one of the best known of its author, is a clever ventriloquist. This gentleman is accompanied by a likely looking figure dressed as a bell-hop and the scene is in a New York club. The act is entitled "The Clubman and the Bell-Boy" and "Charles," as the bell-hop is called, talks, jokes and sings in a way that is sure to amuse the patrons of this theatre. A whistling solo is rendered with the greatest ease on the part of the ventriloquist and he also smokes cigarettes and drinks without even letting up with the entertainment.

A little sketch that various from the usual is offered by Frank Wood and Eunice Wyde, who appear in an offering called "Good Night." They have a pleasing appearance and the dancing and singing is really good.

"Motoring," by Harry Tate and company, including a couple of good comedians, creates considerable laughter on the part of the audience and this act, too, is somewhat different from what is usually seen. There is no singing or dancing goes with the number, but the continued talk of the motorist, his chauffeur and his son, who are taken down on a country road and have little knowledge of the parts of the auto, is funny and upholds the comedy part of the show.

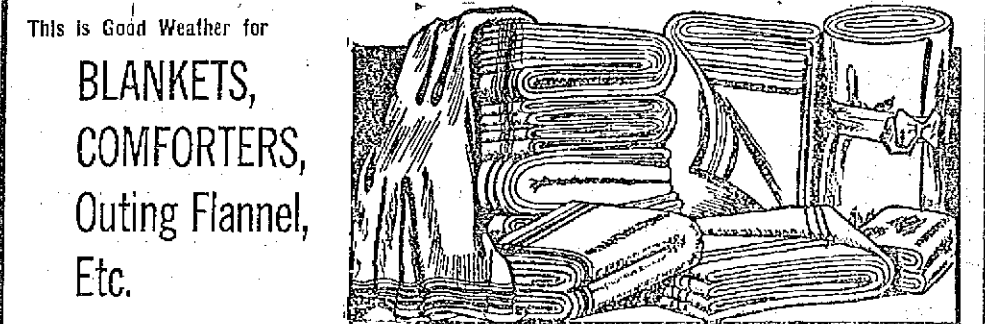

"A Cry in the Night" by Will H. Vedder and Kate Morgan, tells an interesting story in which a strike leader takes the part of an operative and puts one over on a manufacturer who has refused to grant his employees the increase which the leader has asked for.

Bissett and Scott are a clever pair of male dancers and they also bring with them some original numbers, while Loretta and Bud, the latter a hunter's dog, are seen in a posing act that has appeared in this city in past years. The latter Weekly is up to the usual standard and the views are taken from late happenings and are very educational as well as amusing.

EUGENIC BABY

Doctor Claims Theory of Influencing the Sex is Confirmed

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—As proof of his statement that the sex of children is under human control, Dr. Arthur M. Lane of 420 Boylston street yesterday pointed proudly to the girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Brien of Holliston.

The little one, just a week old yesterday, has already been called the mascot of the Winter League, for her father is a prominent and popular member of that well-known organization.

The youngster was seen yesterday at a private hospital on Commonwealth avenue. The wife of a girl certainly looked healthy and passed without much weeping for a picture. Mrs. O'Brien also seemed in the best of health and Dr. Lane well. Dr. Lane was simply jubilant, for he claimed that his oft repeated statement that the sex of a child can be determined before birth had been proven.

"Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien have long wished for a girl baby," said Dr. Lane to a reporter yesterday. "They had known for some time that I had claimed to be able to influence sex, by suggestions to the prospective parents and proper treatment."

"The little girl whom you see before you is proof that my claim is true, that the sex of a child depends entirely on the time of conception."

"This is the first eugenic baby of the year in Boston, and I dare say that there are not many others in the country. It is a fact that at least 50 per cent. of the babies born in this world are living proof of the old, but true saying, 'accident of birth.' They may be born boys or girls, as circumstances dictate. But the sex can just as well be determined in advance if only the proper instructions are carried out by the prospective parents.

"It may seem very marvellous and all that sort of thing, while, as a matter of fact, it is really very simple. If the proper instructions are followed," Dr. Lane declares the idea that feeding a prospective mother more or less sugar will have any effect on the sex of the child. He claims that there is no great mystery attached to the method of influencing sex, but that it simply means following out well defined laws of nature.

RESTOCKING RANGES WITH ELK

Butte, Montana hunters are watching with considerable interest the efforts of sportsmen throughout the state to restock the ranges with elk. Capt. C. Gay Silvers of Butte has been particularly active in this regard and has made application through the game warden's office for three cars of elk, that is about 120 head, to stock the ranges in the vicinity of Rock Creek, near Bonita, and near Georgetown. The work of distributing the elk at the latter place will probably devolve upon General Manager B. P. Mathewson of the Washoe smelter at Anaconda, who is himself an ardent sportsman. It is planned to place one carload, about forty-one head, near Bonita, and two cars near Georgetown.

Later in all probability Capt. Silvers will make an effort to get some elk to stock the range in the vicinity of Moose Creek or north of Butte. Since the elk cannot be trapped until the snow gets deep, in all probability no more will be taken toward stocking the ranges until the month of January or February. The elk are protected until 1913 by law in all the counties to which it is proposed to ship them. Since the railroads are now carrying fish fry and eggs free, it is very probable that some similar concessions will be made with reference to the shipment of elk.

Few people would connect romance with the name of Benjamin Franklin, but there is chance that he may be commemorated in the most romantic of England's few medieval churches.

St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield, London. Some one has discovered from the parish rate books that he once worked at the case in an office housed in his day in the Lady chapel of the church.

Franklin records in his autobiography that he worked in Bartholomew Close, but he says nothing about the place. He mentioned that he was employed on setting up the second edition of Woolston's "Religion of Nature," and in that book is a quaint little engraving showing the top floor of the factory with the compositors' racks. The posts of these racks were still there in 1855 before the Lady chapel was cleared of its workaday fittings and prepared for worship again.

In the wall over the Lady Chapel altar (and in Franklin's day actually in the printing room) are five tall niches, probably filled with figures of saints before the reformation. It is now proposed to commemorate Franklin by placing one or more "female saints" in these niches.

ZERO WEATHER

Blizzard and Storm Lashed the New England Coast

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A bitter winter gale, accompanied by zero weather, lashed the New England coast yesterday. Scores of ships were imperiled and revenue cutters last night were driving through the storm to the rescue of two that are believed to be wrecks.

On one of these are caught a dozen United States life-savers sharing the peril of the vessels crew whom they made a forlorn hope attempt to take off in the teeth of the storm.

Every wireless station on the coast last night was probing the dark in an effort to locate and bring aid to missing vessels.

On shore one person was probably fatally hurt by the storm several others were frozen and untold discomfort was caused by the sudden drop in temperature.

Boston harbor was the scene of the thrilling salvage of a dozen vessels that had broken loose in the wind, while Chatham and other ports along shore were crowded with shipping that had scurried to shelter.

Days may pass before the full tale of the storm's damage to shipping is told, as the force of shore wind, rising to 70 miles an hour, drove many schooners far out to sea, and some of these have probably perished.

Late last night the revenue cutters Gresham and Acushnet were struggling to reach the four-masted schooner Mt. Hope, which was in dire distress off Chatham.

Their efforts are stimulated by the fact that she has on board Capt. Frederick F. Doane and the whole crew of the Old Harbor life saving station. Their plucky response to the distress signal of the American flag, down upon down at the mizen peak of the schooner, has resulted in their sharing the dangers of the crew.

They launched their big boat and after a desperate struggle with the sea are known to have reached the ship in safety; but the awful wind cut them off completely from any hope of return to shore. The seas were so bad that the Gresham, short of coal, had to put back to Provincetown yesterday afternoon, after she had started to answer the Mt. Hope's signal for aid.

Chairman White Issues Warning to Legislators—Sees Big Increase

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—A state tax of nearly $12,000,000 as compared with $5,000,000 last year, is the warning issued to the legislature yesterday by House Chairman Thomas W. White of the committee on ways and means.

In a letter to each member of the house he says: "It seems proper to call your attention early in the year to the condition of the expenditures and revenues of the commonwealth for the coming year and to ask your co-operation, regardless of politics, in safeguarding the treasury and curbing the state tax to the extent that it shall not become oppressive to the people of the different cities and towns."

Estimated expenditures for 1914 under existing laws, $11,771,942.91
Estimated revenue for 1914, 5,955,695.88
Balance unprovided for, which will be assessed as part of the state tax, 7,755,560.05

"In addition to the balance unprovided for these are special requests for appropriations to the amount of $3,700,374.91. If these are granted the total state tax for 1914 will be $11,456,255.92, against last year's tax of $8,600,000."

HOT TEA BREAKS

A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburg Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

AUTO WRECKED; 2 HURT

Ernest Pelletier, the Jockey, Had Narrow Escape From Death—Girl Injured

Ernest Pelletier, the well known jockey, is in a critical condition at his home, 69 High street, suffering from two fractured ribs and other internal injuries as well as external bruises, which were received in an automobile accident which occurred yesterday afternoon on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard near Stanley's dance hall in Methuen. There were two others in the automobile, but fortunately they were not seriously injured. The car, an Overland five-passenger auto, was practically demolished.

The automobile is owned by Delphis Belleville, who resides at 222 Cumberland road and conducts a grocery and meat market at 22 Alken avenue. Yesterday Mr. Belleville's daughter, Ida, about 14 years of age, and Mr. Pelletier journeyed to Haverhill. They left the shoe city at about 3 o'clock and shortly after 4 o'clock they reached Stanley's place in Methuen. Mr. Belleville was at the wheel and he was driving at a moderate rate of speed. At this point the road was covered with a thin coating of ice, but Mr. Belleville paid very little attention to this for the rear wheels of his car were equipped with chains.

However, the machine skidded and struck the Bay State tracks. The chauffeur applied the brakes, but his efforts were fruitless, the machine skidded along and finally struck a telegraph pole and turned turtle. Mr. Belleville managed to get away under the car and with the assistance of neighbors he succeeded in removing his daughter and Mr. Pelletier, who were placed to the ground under the car.

Mr. Pelletier and the girl were conscious, and it was readily seen that they had suffered serious injuries. They were placed aboard the first electric car that came along in the Lowell direction and hurried to this city. Mr. Pelletier was removed to his home in High street and Dr. L. V. Rochette was summoned in haste. After a close examination he found that his patient was suffering from two fractured ribs as well as other internal injuries and bruises about the body. To the writer the doctor stated this morning Mr. Pelletier's condition is very serious and he entertains little hope for his recovery.

Ida Belleville was badly injured about the legs and body, while her father received bruises about the legs. Fortunately their injuries are not of a serious nature. The front wheels of the auto were smashed as well as the wind shield and mud guards, while the body of the car was also badly damaged. The auto was last night towed to a local garage where it was being repaired.

DROWNED IN CONCORD

Boy Went on Ice Late Yesterday and Disappeared in Sight of His Mother

Eight-year-old Fred Tarnabald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tarnabald of Clark's court, off Lawrence street, fell through the ice on the Concord river just below Rogers street yesterday afternoon about 4:15 o'clock and before aid could be summoned the youngster was drowned. The mother of the boy stood on the shore but a few yards from her boy when he was last seen to go under the ice but she could do nothing to rescue him.

The accident happened shortly after the boy had returned from school and he together with a couple of friends journeyed down to the river side, which is directly back of his home, and walked on the ice along the edge of the river. It is understood that Fred walked out a little farther than either of his companions and as the ice was not strong in that spot he broke through and was drowned. The other two boys screamed and attracted the attention of Mrs. Tarnabald and several others but the boy had disappeared under the surface before they could find a man to attempt to rescue the lad. At the time the mother stood on the bank she did not realize that it was her son although she got a glimpse of him struggling to hold to the edge of the ice. When she realized that her boy was drowned she was terribly overcome with grief.

Shortly after the accident occurred Undertakers Higgins Bros. started to grapple for the body and the search was continued until midnight, and then was suspended until 8 o'clock this morning.

COLDEST IN THREE YEARS

Continued

Indicates a general cold wave and it is feared that in many places the orange crop will be damaged.

In New York the temperature dropped to ten above zero early this morning and weather forecasters predicted still colder weather during the day. In the northwest below zero temperatures were common, the lowest, 20 degrees below, being registered at Devil's Lake, N. D. At White River, Ontario, 30 degrees below was reported.

Other low temperatures today were: Fourteen degrees above at Cleveland, Ohio at Syracuse, N. Y. Ten degrees below at Quebec, Zero at Chicago. Six degrees below at Boston.

Frozen to Death
While but one death was recorded in New York last night much suffering from the extreme cold. Nearly 2500 men and women sought shelter last night at municipal lodging-houses and charity organizations.

The coldest night of the winter in the Adirondacks was reported, the thermometer registering 20 below at Tupper Lake, N. Y. and 23 below at Adirondack Park. In the Adirondack Park the snow of the recent blizzard, along the Atlantic coast shipping suffered from the off-shore gale and in New York harbor early today the number of vessels engaged in towing and transferring freight was far below normal. The drop in temperature of 19 degrees since noon yesterday brought the first genuine winter weather in New York and vicinity and the northwest gale of yesterday, continued today, although with less velocity.

Traffic Disrupted
In the Mohawk valley railroad traffic is completely disrupted and delayed by the sweeping winter weather. At Amsterdam the temperature this morning was 22 below, at Gloversville 20, at Watertown 28, at Albany 10, at Binghamton 12, at Rochester 14, at Syracuse 22, at Auburn 12, at Buffalo 8 degrees below zero. At Big Moose, in the upper Adirondack, the mercury dropped to 31 degrees below.

MANY SMALL FIRES

Result From Overheated Furnaces and Attempts to Thaw Pipes in Boston—4 Below

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—Unofficial thermometers in the city and suburbs this morning registered from six to two degrees below zero, with a sweeping northwesterly adding to the discomfort. Overheated furnaces and attempts to thaw frozen water pipes resulted in many small fires which kept the apparatus on the jump early in the day.

MONTREAL, 7 BELOW

Bent Taste of Winter, but It Helps the Unemployed, Given Work Removing Snow

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—Seven inches of snow fell between midnight and noon yesterday and a decline of the thermometer to 7 degrees below zero gave this city its first real taste of winter weather this season.

With about 15 inches of snow on the ground, Montreal now presents an appearance like that of a few years ago, when the capital gained renown as the "Ice Carnival City." The storm came as a boon to the unemployed, however, as hundreds of them have been given work removing the snow.

COLDEST IN TWO YEARS

Light Flurries of Snow Accompanied the Cold Snap in Philadelphia—17 Below at 9 A. M.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 13.—The cold wave reached this part of the country during the night. In Philadelphia the weather bureau recorded 17 degrees below zero at 9 a. m., the coldest in two years. Light snow flurries accompanied the cold snap. Zero temperature was reported from different points in the mountains of Pennsylvania.

"COLDEST NIGHT IN YEARS"

Reported From Chatham—Schooners Anchored Under Lee of Cape Cod—Distress Signals

CHATHAM, Jan. 13.—When dawn broke today after the coldest and most boisterous night in many years, two schooners were anchored under the lee of Cape Cod with distress signals set. A dry mill off shore gale was sweeping the coast and the mercury was down to the zero mark.

A long boat was blown from Nantucket sound into the bay to the westward of Monomoy Point but because of the thin and treacherous ice that formed about the shore the boat could not be reached. No sign of life could be seen on board.

Very little could be seen from this point today, owing to the steam which rose like fog from the ocean and which the gale could not disperse. At dusk last night a large fleet of schooners was at anchor under the lee of the cape and it was believed that all rode out the gale.

TEMPERATURE GALES

Thermometer Registered 28 Below at Philadelphia at 7 O'Clock This Morning

PITTSFIELD, Jan. 13.—The cold wave from the west which reached this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon, accompanied by terrific gales, continued unabated throughout the night at 7 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 28 degrees below zero in Pittsfield. It was 26 degrees below in Lanesboro and 25 in Ellendale.

RHODE ISLAND SHIVERS

Experiencing the Coldest Day of the Year—15 Below in Slatersville Today

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 13.—This state shivered today in the coldest day of the year. The temperatures ranged from four below zero in this city to 15 below in Slatersville and in many of the country districts the mercury hovered around ten below.

TRAFFIC SUSPENDED

Rough Seas Prevented Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket Steamboats Making Trip

WOODS HOLE, Jan. 13.—The northwesterly gale and zero weather compelled a complete suspension of traffic here today. The rough seas prevented the Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket steamboats making their trips and railroad service was abandoned because steam could not be made.

Throughout the night the wind blew in a westerly direction, but today it wards morning began gradually to subside and the mercury dropped low. Many calls for assistance for vessels in distress have been received here and forwarded to the revenue cutter Acushnet. The cutter had more work than she could handle alone and received a terrible lashing all through the night assisting vessels on the shoals.

SUFFER FROM COLD

Six Families Driven Out When Fire Breaks Out in Tenement Block—Fire Started in Tailor Shop

MEDFORD, Jan. 13.—With the mercury hovering around the zero mark, members of six families occupying the two upper floors of a four-story brick block at 491 Broadway, near the corner of Dexter street, South Medford, were obliged to flee to the streets, scant attire when a fire was discovered in a store on the street floor at 10 o'clock last night.

The building is just out of Magoun square, Somerville, and the alarm brought fire apparatus from both Somerville and Medford.

A passenger on a passing electric car saw the fire as he alighted, and sounded the fire alarm.

The fire was in the tailor shop of M. Levine on the street floor, adjoining the drug store of J. A. Kyke & Co. The second floor is occupied by Dr. H. C. Dalton, physician, and J. W. Pountney, dentist.

GREAT SUFFERING

Continued Cold Still Gripped the Entire North and Central Portions of the Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Continued cold that drove the mercury to zero in many spots and as far as 35 degrees below in some, still gripped the entire north and central portions of the country today and caused much suffering.

Following in the wake of Monday's St. Lawrence storm which passed out to whip the New England coast, a blanket of still frost settled down for another day.

But to the westward of the wintry region is another area, as the weather sharpens, say, pressing for room to move and as it slides eastward it is expected to displace the colder air tomorrow and bring relief. Rising temperatures all through the west were marking the movement of the new weather today and temperatures there were again above the seasonal average.

As the warmer air moves toward the Atlantic, the weather men say it will be accompanied by blue skies. So, the winter's first real old-fashioned weather promises to be short lived.

30 BELOW IN SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 13.—Thermometers in and around Springfield registered from six to 19 below zero at 6 a. m. A gale that blew during the night and early morning began to moderate at 8 o'clock.

EVICIONS IN BLIZZARD

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 12.—Fourteen fresh evictions suits, coupled with a blizzard and the first break in the union ranks at Ahmeek village, in the northern part of the strike district, caused Western Federation of Miners' leaders to shake their heads dubiously.

yesterday. The union stores, especially the one in Hancock, were crowded all day, and numerous requests for increased fuel and food supplies had to be met. Charity workers and Salvation Army officers also found numerous calls awaiting them.

LOCAL NEWS

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Continued

The annual reports of the superintendent of cemeteries and superintendent of moth extermination were accepted.

Transfer Allowed
The transfer of $130.73 from different appropriations for fire house improvements was voted.

The recommendation of the municipal council for 1913 in the matter of claims for injury to persons and property was read by the mayor, together with the names of those who were given leave to withdraw. The matter was referred to the commissioner of public safety and the city solicitor. The government for 1913 recommended that the following claims be paid:

John P. Boyle, M. D., $6; Pierre Brunelle, M. D., $15; James A. Byrne, $35; John B. Carney, $50; A. P. French, $10.18; Margaret E. Green, $100; Michael Herlihy, $45; Patrick J. Klerce, $35; D. J. Leavy, $300; Lillian LeClair, $80; Edward Mooney, $100; James Smith, $400; Thomas B. Smith, M. D., $4; George L. A. Gargan, M. D., $3; Patrick J. Harrigan, $5; Dr. James M. Sparks, $25.45.

Pending Settlement
Those whose names were not settled by the old corporation, and the evidence relating to them being now in the office of the solicitor, are as follows: Adams Hardware and Paint Co., Lauri R. Beady, Annie Bergh, Kollaway Amusement company, Mrs. L. A. Brown, Charles E. Cahill, Mrs. Dora Caswell, Nellie Conston, Patrick Curran, William DeLachy, Stephen A. Dobbins, William H. Fuller, C. F. George & Co., Good Roads Machinery Co., Mrs. David B. Hall, Mrs. Alice A. Kny, Fred Trotter, William M. Waterman, Louis Wolfe, Joseph Gargan, Lowell Trust Co., James P. Mahan, M. D., Maurice O'Connor, James Linton, Alden B. Miley, Henrietta Bond, Geo. A. Costello et als., Alexander Johnson, John F. Noyes, Cook, Taylor & Co., John Durand, Frank Daly, Thos. Keefe, Myer Klein, Joseph G. Laka, Mrs. Mary McArthur, Isabella M. McAuley, John McElhinney, Charles L. Harren, J. P. Mealey, Napoleon Milot, St. Thomas Moran, John E. Murphy, Frank T. Mussey, New England Road Machinery Co., Victor C. Salois, John J. Shea, Thomas Smith, Percy B. Varum, Katherine Wholey, F. P. Crawford Co., Lowell corporation hospital, Matthew McNamara, George Moore, Estelle Richardson, Peter Cleah, employees of Lowell Trust company, Frank J. Campbell, Dennis J. Conney, Alex Jancovich & Co.

Leave to Withdraw
The following claimants were given leave to withdraw:

James B. Arthur & Co., Fred and Frances Brooks, Eugene G. Grinnard, Michael Rourke, Frank W. Stevens, Bennett Bros., C. M. J. Gray, Eugene F. McCann, Scott & O'Day Co.

The Referendum Papers
Mayor Murphy then turned his attention to the referendum papers on his desk and read the prayer of the petitioners relative to the Dr. Pillsbury estate for an isolation hospital. The petitioners objected to the action of the council in 1913 appropriating $21,000 for the purchase of that site.

The mayor said that there was not a sufficient number of names to the petition and it was voted that the city clerk notify the petitioners of the insufficiency of names and that the papers be returned to the city clerk's office.

Commissioner Brown Opposed
Commissioner Carmichael then moved that the action of the council for 1913 in appropriating $21,000 for the Pillsbury estate be rescinded and repealed.

Commissioner Brown questioned the legality of such action in view of the fact that referendum proceedings had not been completed.

"I feel," he said, "that this council ought not to take hasty action. This council has not visited the Pillsbury estate and in view of the fact that the court has said we must build a hospital, I think it behooves us to go slow."

"This matter should be placed upon the ballot. Let the matter be settled by the people. If we do this, I feel that the public will approve our action."

"We find an insufficiency of names to the petition and this fact ought not to be overlooked. The referendum proceedings should be lived up to in accordance with the language of the charter and if you allow this thing to go there is nothing to prevent, say 100 voters, from blocking any movement that might be on foot."

The mayor had assured Commissioner Brown that the council had the right to rescind the action of the former council, but Mr. Brown refused to yield. "I am far from being convinced," he said, "that the council's action in this matter is a legal one and I will call for a yes and nay vote."

Too Much Expense
Colonel Carmichael said the city could not stand the expense of $21,000 for a hospital site. "We cannot afford to buy houses that we cannot use," he said. "I am ready to vote to rescind the action of a former council."

Mr. Carmichael said that the money represented in the purchase price of the site in question would afford work for a great many men in the various departments.

The motion was finally put and carried. Commissioner Brown voting against.

Forest Warden Elected
The appointment of a forest warden as required by the state forestry was next in order and Edward F. Saunders was elected.

Mayor Murphy called attention to the fact that the municipal council no longer had the power to elect fish wardens; that the state commission does the trick now with the recommendation of the council. He said that persons desirous of trying for the position should send in their names.

On motion of Commissioner Carmichael the council adjourned till one week from tomorrow at 11 a. m.

RESERVE BANK FOR BOSTON

With all the arrogance of the old time when they were absolute masters of the financial system of the country and part dictators of its policies, the bankers of New York representing Wall street and the money trust are striving to make the revised currency bill a tool for the satisfying of their greed and their recovery of power. With Warren effectively they are seeking to convince the president and congress that the needs of the entire northwest demand that one great reserve bank be established in New York for the accommodation of New England. Unfortunately for their contention New England does not see the matter in the same light but through the voice of its bankers and business men is demanding the location of a federal reserve bank in Boston to serve the financial needs of New England.

The New York bankers are still in favor of concentration regardless of the fact that the currency bill was passed to put an end to financial concentration in favor of a few powerful financiers. The ends of the new bill, they say, would be best served were there one extremely strong bank in New York heavily capitalized, and seven weak ones. They ignore the fact that the government abuses all the advantage of all sections equally and will protect all reserve banks whether north, south, east or west. What the answer of the federal government to the selfish bankers of New York will be may be inferred from the remark of Secretary McAdoo, who said that the power of a bank does not lie entirely in its capitalization.

Owing to the varying needs of different localities it is not possible that the division of the country into districts to be served by the reserve banks can be done satisfactorily on a geographical basis. The establishing of rural credits and the demands of the industrial centers make the claims of various cities territorially unequal, but the growing needs of Boston is a strong argument against the establishment of a reserve bank in New York to meet the needs of New England. If the Reserve Bank Organization committee heads the opinions of people generally they will know that the people of this section desire the location of a reserve bank in Boston and that furthermore the feeling is strong against looking to New York for the industrial or financial improvement of New England.

The agitation for the establishment of one of the reserve banks in Boston is based on something stronger than the extravagant claims of New York. New England is a wealthy and compact trade district and the convenience of our business men would be served best by a New England reserve bank. Were one to be established in Boston it would serve as a reservoir for our financial system, and it would enable the local banks to get accommodations within the area of New England which they are now forced often to seek in New York or elsewhere. The financial standing of firms and individuals, the state of our business institutions, the solvency of prospective business men can be determined with greater facility by a Boston reserve bank than by one in New York covering the claims of the entire northeast.

It is high time that the financial and industrial interests of New England would unite in breaking the power of a selfish and greedy clique in New York by protesting strenuously against the location of a reserve bank in New England. The country has been too long at the mercy of a powerful few and their power must be broken. For the sake of New England's future and for the principle involved Boston should be given the location of one of the federal reserve banks without question. The good effect of the new currency law will be counteracted to the extent that the money kings of Wall street can continue to manipulate the finances of this country.

CHANGES IN TRAINS

Considering the tendency of all railroads to take trains off the lines which do not pay for their service, we are extremely fortunate in our new Boston and Maine schedule on the southern division which does not change the train time in any essential particular. Most of the changes in the running time from here to Boston consist in the running of the trains a little earlier as for instance in the case of the trains that formerly left here at 2:34 p.m., 4:30 p.m. and 7:43 p.m.; the new running time will be 2:30 p.m., 4:20 p.m. and 7:41 p.m. Trains from Boston to Lowell also run at practically the same time, though there are several changes that will mean a great deal to the individual who counts on getting to the depot some seconds before his train starts.

The 12:05 theatre train from Boston has been discontinued by the public service commission which almost ordered it a year ago. Though popular with its patrons, it was not patronized to a sufficient extent to make it pay and with the desire for efficiency the road felt constrained to discontinue it. Though possibly it may be revived some time in the future, it is better that the road should curtail as far as possible at the present time for a limited service even is better than recidivism. The report of the Boston chamber of commerce referred to in these columns yesterday urged on the public the necessity for patience at this critical time.

The new schedule has one defect that was in the old also—a space of almost one hour and a half in the middle of the afternoon without any train to Boston on the southern division. It may be inopportune to request some improvement at this time, but the service cannot be considered satisfactory until this defect is remedied. Without putting on additional trains it might be possible to rearrange the schedule sufficiently to overcome this defect and if this were done it would be publicly appreciated.

CURTAILMENT OF WASTE

In the textile industries and other great manufactures of this country the greatest strides of recent years have been made in the elimination of waste. With the recognition of the needs for the adoption of general efficiency it has become apparent that there are untold possibilities in the utilization of waste products or by-products, the getting of the greatest possible result with the least expenditure, and the adoption of scientific methods of manufacture which save investment.

Yet though the strides towards the elimination of waste or reducing it to a minimum have been great recently, there are still many avenues of waste by which the ultimate profit of the manufacturer and stockholders is reduced. It is estimated that, in the textile industry, there is an annual loss of $70,000,000 on the raw cotton because of poor baling and this is all the more regrettable when we consider that the cotton crop is never more prolific than is necessary to meet the needs of the world. Formerly cotton was baled in a careless fashion that permitted much of it to go to waste, but now it is being seen that greater care in the compressing and wrapping of the bales has a direct return in greater financial results.

It is also becoming generally recognized that the employment of a low standard of labor even at a much reduced wage involves ultimate loss for what is saved in wages is more than lost in waste. The efficient worker uses less stock and manufactures a better commodity than the inefficient worker and as in the case of proper baling, there is also here great need for improvement. Efficiency must concern itself with the worker to see that the vast loss from waste in production is reduced to a minimum.

NEW POLICE CHANGES

Some new police changes indicate that somebody has seen the light with regard to the impropriety of imposing punishment for political preference on men who have given long and efficient service to the city. Whether these changes were made voluntarily or are the result of general public discussion is not apparent, but the fact that they are made is of itself sufficient to prove that some alleged moves "for the good of the service" were not based on sound judgment. No matter how incensed the public may be against a police official for real or supposed political leanings there will be no permanent support of any measure which would punish loyalty by injustice. It is a poor introduction of the merit system to take men old in years and in point of service and send them on beats usually patrolled by young and vigorous men, and though some biased commentators may at first approve of this action or commend it, fairness will in the end prevail and there will be general condemnation of a system of promotion or punishment based on real or alleged political preference.

PLENTY OF WINTER

A steamship company advertising cruises to Panama, the West Indies and other mild climates uses as an inducement to the people of this region to take a trip what it calls a "warning of the weather bureau" to the effect that we will have "plenty of winter." If the winter in store for us is of the brand we have had for the past week or so there is no reason why an announcement of a few months of it should be regarded as a warning. Panama and the West Indies may look attractive to the invalid, but to the sturdy people of New England there could be nothing more delightful for January and February than the weather we are now enjoying. We will have tropical weather enough in six months and unlike the cuckoo there are few of us who like perpetual summer. For the present, far better that we have the weather of cold and ice and clear bracing air than the milder climate of Panama. Let us rejoice at the "warning" of the weather bureau and prepare ourselves to enjoy "plenty of winter."

TAFT FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

Without apparent authority it is being generally circulated in the press that on the retirement of Chief Justice White from the supreme bench President Wilson will appoint Ex-President Taft to take his place. In the discussion of the matter there has not been a dissenting voice against the suggestion. In experience, qualities of mind and heart, knowledge of the law, or other essential qualifications, the great ex-president embodies in his general self all that a chief justice should have, and the country as a whole would support President Wilson were he to recognize his splendid qualities and make him successor to the eminent jurist who now holds the elevated position.

So the rebel army under General Villa is preparing to move south. If General Huerta has not forgotten the example of Diaz and the fate of Madero he is preparing to move south ahead of it.

If these police moves keep up under the guise of efficiency the force will certainly be well acquainted with the city—geographically.

The federal court commission has declared Harry Shaw sane. The public has known that all along.

I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give California Syrup of Figs

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, gives a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits! Ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.
